
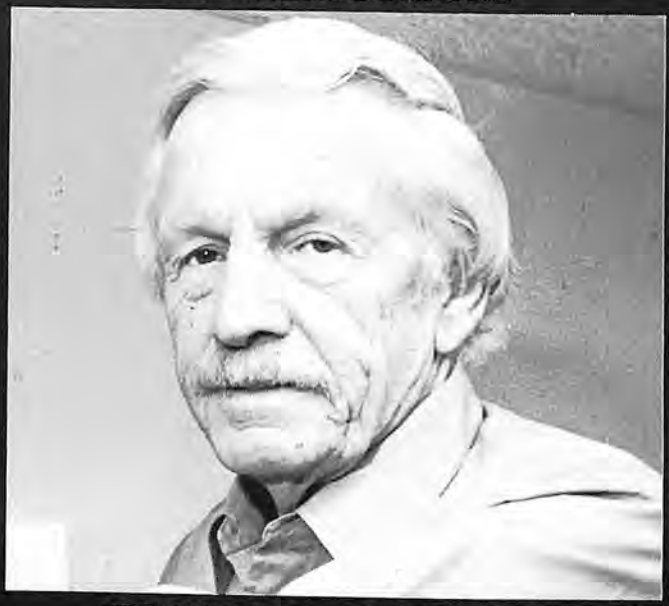
1992 KANSAS CITY CHIEFS MEDIA GUIDE

IN MEMORIUM



WHITEY DOVELL

February 11, 1927 – May 11, 1992

"I don't know whether I've ever encountered a person who was as respected and admired by as many people as he was. He truly was the professional in everything he did. More than that, he truly was a unique human being. He had such dignity and quiet pride. As ill as he was, he never complained about anything, or that he had received a bad deal in life.

"For the Chiefs, his whole focus and direction was in improving us as a football team to the very end. There's a lot of ways to define courage, and Whitey Dovell's life was the epitome of it."

– CARL PETERSON, PRESIDENT/GM

Mr. Dovell, who joined the Chiefs organization in 1987 as pro personnel director, had been either a football coach or scout for the past 34 years. He spent 15 years in the collegiate ranks and another 19 years on the professional level. His first 14 years of pro service were in the NFL, primarily as an offensive coach, and his final three seasons as a pro assistant coach came in the USFL. He left coaching in 1984, spending two years in the New England Patriots pro and college scouting department before his arrival in Kansas City.

Mr. Dovell was instrumental in the Chiefs drafts from 1988-92 as well as the club's free agent acquisitions during that span. The Chiefs prospered from drafts conducted under Mr. Dovell's leadership. The five drafts he directed produced Neil Smith and Derrick Thomas, a pair of Pro Bowl players, as well as standouts like Kevin Porter, Harvey Williams, Robb Thomas, Percy Snow, Tim Barnett, Tim Grunhard, Dave Szott, Derrick Graham, Todd McNair and Bill Jones. His scouting department was also adept at finding free agent gems, such as Barry Word, J.J. Birden, Dan Saleaumua, Lonnie Marts, Tracy Simien and Bryan Barker.

Mr. Dovell began his coaching career in 1952 as head freshman coach at the University of Maryland, where he was an offensive and defensive lineman during his college playing career. He remained with the Terps for 15 years through the 1966 season. He served as offensive line coach, offensive coordinator or defensive coordinator for 11 years after his four-year stint as freshman coach.

When Maryland head coach Lou Saban left Maryland to become the head coach of the Denver Broncos in 1967, Mr. Dovell joined him as offensive line coach. After five seasons in Denver, Mr. Dovell held offensive coaching positions with the Chicago Bears (1972-74) and Baltimore Colts (1975-78) before returning to the Broncos for a two-year term in 1979-80. He then spent three years in the USFL with the Denver Gold and Chicago Blitz.

A native of Newark, New Jersey, Mr. Dovell was born February 11, 1927. Mr. Dovell, who spent two years in the Navy, earned both a bachelor's and master's degree in education from the University of Maryland. He is survived by his wife, Clare, and his three daughters, Audrey, Lisa and Patricia.

IN MEMORIUM

BUCK BUCHANAN

September 10, 1940 – July 16, 1992

"Buck was a fantastic person in so many ways, not just as a football player. He had so many positive attributes, this is just a huge loss for the community. He had a quietness about him, a work ethic, was never in trouble outside the field. He was always a positive, a terrific leader."

– LAMAR HUNT, CHIEFS FOUNDER

"We build our sports heroes until they seem bigger than life. If anybody seemed to fit that description, it was Buck Buchanan. He was much more than the sum of his achievements. He was the personification of our sport – a hero in every way."

– CARL PETERSON, PRESIDENT/GM

Mr. Buchanan was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 1980 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990. The first overall selection in the 1963 AFL draft, he was the prototype for future pro defensive linemen. At 6-7 and 287 pounds, he was able to combine size with outstanding strength and deceptive speed.

Mr. Buchanan helped the Chiefs win two AFL titles and a Super Bowl victory over the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings in 1970. In his second pro season in 1964, he ventured to his first AFL All-Star game. That would start an eight-season stretch during which he played in either the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. The Chiefs co-captain was a unanimous All-AFL selection from 1966 through 1969 and then All-AFC in 1970. His teammates named him the Chiefs MVP in 1965 and 1967.

Offensive linemen throughout the AFL were no match for the wily Buchanan. The Raiders Al Davis used his first-round draft choice in 1967 to help remedy this problem. He tabbed Gene Upshaw, who at 6-5 was three inches taller than the typical pro football guard. Upshaw was to be a new kind of guard, the type who could use his own size, height, strength and speed to match up against someone like Mr. Buchanan.

Mr. Buchanan, who was born September 10, 1940, in Gainesville, Alabama, was the captain of both his basketball and football teams at Parker High School in Birmingham. He played one year of varsity basketball at Grambling, but concentrated on football. At Grambling, players went both ways. On offense, he played left tackle and on defense he played tackle alongside Ernie Ladd.

By the time Mr. Buchanan was ready for pro ball, Grambling coaching legend Eddie Robinson proudly said he was "the finest tackle I have ever seen."

Mr. Buchanan retired from football in 1975. His uniform number 86 was recently retired. Following his playing days, he served as the owner of the All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City.

FOUNDER

LAMAR HUNT

The man partially responsible not only for Kansas City football, but also for much of the current design of professional football, is Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt.

As the organizer of the franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the American Football League and earned spots in two Super Bowls, as well as the 1969 World Championship. As the founder of the AFL, and a principal negotiator in the merger with the NFL, Hunt helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to professional football is the AFC Championship Trophy that carries his name.

Another indication of Hunt's contributions to the game is that he was the first AFL figure to be honored by enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. That high honor was bestowed in the summer of 1972.

Hunt was later honored by the NFL Alumni Association, receiving the prestigious Leather Helmet Award in 1982, and has subsequently been honored in the Sports Hall of Fames of both Missouri and Texas.

In 1960, Hunt helped make pro football history by founding and organizing the AFL, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization will celebrate its 30th year in Mid-America in '92.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled but Hunt saw his franchise achieve on-field success. In 1962, the Texans won the AFL Championship with an overtime victory over Houston, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs in the 10-year history of the league. They repeated as champions in both 1966 and 1969. By winning the '66 title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first world major league sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

Hunt was a chief negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late sixties and was one of the principal designers of the playoff format. Hunt is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game – the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball."

Lamar Hunt has been a leader in the game for over 30 years, and few individuals have helped shape the game more than this quiet Texan. He maintains a Dallas residence but has actively contributed to the Kansas City economy through the development of the multi-million-dollar recreational theme park "Worlds of Fun," and in addition, 10 years ago the family-controlled Hunt Midwest Corporation also opened the "Oceans of Fun" water park. The Hunt family is the principal owner of the Kansas City-based company.

An avid sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional entertainment ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the World Champion Chicago Bulls of the NBA. He and his family were also involved in the development of the North American Soccer League and World Championship Tennis.

Hunt is an active member of the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and serves on the NFL Alumni Association's Board of Directors. As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a regular member of three prominent NFL committees — Finance, Long Range Planning and Hall of Fame, and has additionally been active as a member of the Board of Directors of the World League of American Football, which recently completed its second season.

Hunt was born August 2, 1932, in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in geology in 1956. While at SMU, Hunt was a reserve end on the varsity football team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

JACK W. STEADMAN

In 1992, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 33rd season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenge brought about by growth of the business of pro football over the years.

As the Chiefs begin their 30th season in Kansas City, and their 21st season in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, Steadman can look with pride at the list of football and administrative accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the 1963 season in the old American Football League.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of Kansas City building the dual Harry S. Truman Sports Complex which houses the Chiefs in the 78,000-seat Arrowhead, and Royals baseball in the 42,000-seat Royals Stadium. This complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world.

Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1966; in August of 1976 he was named President of the Chiefs in charge of all operating operations; and in 1989 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful businessman with the Kansas City Chiefs Football Club, Jack Steadman joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun. The 165-acre family entertainment complex opened in 1973 and drew over 800,000 guests during its first season of operation. After 19 years, Worlds of Fun has grown from 60 rides, shows and attractions to over 115. Over 22 million guests have enjoyed Worlds of Fun since 1973.

In 1982, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. Located adjacent to Worlds of Fun, Oceans of Fun has hosted over three million guests since its opening.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun theme parks, Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Co., an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves on the Board of Directors of Commerce Bank and is the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Plan Committee.

Actively involved within the community since arriving in Kansas City, Steadman is a tireless worker and detailed organizer in many civic and service projects. He is a past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way, and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association, Starlight Theatre Association, and Private Industry Council. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a member of the Civic Council. In 1988 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citian of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in business administration from Southern Methodist University. Jack and his wife, Martha, who also is involved in a number of civic organizations in Kansas City, live in Mission Hills, Kansas.

PRESIDENT/GM

CARL PETERSON
President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer

When Carl Peterson took over the operation of the Chiefs on December 18, 1988, there was much talk about making winning a habit again in Kansas City.

On that day, club founder Lamar Hunt said of his new President/General Manager: "He's been associated with major winners on all levels. It appears to me he has made a habit of being a winner and being associated with winners wherever he has been."

At his initial Chiefs press conference, Peterson, a man who places production ahead of potential, also talked about making winning habit-forming.

"It's been my experience that winning is a habit," said Peterson. "Winning is not a sometimes thing, it's an all-the-time thing. Once the habit is established, it becomes expected, and it's difficult to change. To create this habit, every person in this organization must be dedicated to that one collective goal. Talking about winning, thinking about it and simply wanting to win doesn't get it done."

Since Peterson's arrival, the Chiefs have done more than talk or think about winning – they've done it.

In '90-91, the Chiefs have won 22 games, the most for the team since '68-69. Both seasons have resulted in a trip to the playoffs, and in '91, the Chiefs played their first playoff game in Kansas City in 20 years.

Playoffs and winnng seasons are nothing new to Peterson, who has played an integral role in the success of the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, the Philadelphia Eagles and UCLA. Since he was appointed Player Personnel Director of the Eagles in '77, the pro teams he has been associated with have a combined record of 117-61-2 (.656). In his last 11 seasons in pro football, his teams have had winning records 10 times and made the playoffs on nine occasions.

Despite his unquestioned success with the Chiefs, he refuses to sit back and admire his accomplishments.

"I'm leery of anything that gives the impression that this job is finished, that it's time to stop and pat somebody on the back," he stated. "There is no magic wand that suddenly puts us in the Super Bowl. There's a tremendous amount of hard work left."

One area that Peterson has always excelled in is unearthing talent. In his brief tenure with the Chiefs, he, Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell, who passed away this May, and their outstanding scouting department used the college draft and free agent market to build the club's talent pool.

Each of the Chiefs last three No. 1 draft picks have been major contributors: Derrick Thomas ('89 – 3 Pro Bowls); Percy Snow ('90 – starter as a rookie); and Harvey Williams ('91 – all-purpose yardage leader as a rookie). In addition, six other Peterson/Dovell draftees have become starters: Tim Grunhard (No. 2 in '90); Robb Thomas (No. 6 in '89); Tim Barnett (No. 3 in '91); Dave Szott (No. 7 in '90); Derrick Graham (No. 5 in '90) and Bill Jones (No. 12 in '89). The Chiefs scouting braintrust has also taken from "Plan B," free agency and trades to further stockpile talent such as Dan Saleaumua, Barry Word, Mark Vlasic, Lonnie Marts, J.J. Birden, Tracy Simien, Bryan Barker, Ervin Randle and Mike Webster.

Peterson has led the Chiefs to many off-the-field successes as well. Season ticket sales have soared to a level last seen in the early '70s. In '92, the club cut off season ticket sales at 65,000. The teams last eight games at Arrowhead Stadium have been sold out, and in '91, the club's average attendance of 74,762 fans was the second-highest in the entire NFL.

Under Peterson, the Chiefs have also added new grass practice fields and a much-needed indoor practice complex that includes 90 yards of omniturf plus new weight-training facilities and locker rooms.

Peterson's reputation as one of football's top executives began in '77, when he became the Director of Player Personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles. As the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent, he helped take a team which had not produced a winning team in 12 years and transformed it into a playoff participant in his final four seasons. The highlight of those four years came in '80, when the Eagles won the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

After his rapid success with the Eagles, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the USFL was launched in July of '82. As the franchise's President and General Manager, he proceeded to put together the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 41-12-1 record during the regular season and 7-1 mark in postseason play were easily the finest of any USFL team. His efforts were rewarded in '83 and '84, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

Peterson displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he took over the Chiefs fortunes. With the Eagles, he found Pro Bowl running back Wilbert Montgomery in the sixth round, claimed linebacker Jerry Robinson, the '79 NFL Rookie of the Year, with the 21st pick of the first round, and stole five-time Pro Bowl receiver Mike Quick with the 20th pick in round one. Several of his acquisitions with the Stars went on to become starters in the NFL. They include linebacker Sam Mills (Saints), center Bart Oates (Giants), tackle Irv Eatman (Chiefs and Jets), linebacker Mike Johnson (Browns), punter Sean Landeta (Giants) and running back Kelvin Bryant (Redskins).

"I'm leery of anything that gives the impression that this job is finished, that it's time to stop and pat somebody on the back. There is no magic wand that suddenly puts us in the Super Bowl. There's a tremendous amount of hard work left."

– Carl Peterson

After his tenure in the USFL, Peterson entered private business, serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of Phillysport magazine in Philadelphia.

A '66 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career as an assistant at two California high schools, Wilson High in '66 and Loyola High in '67-68. He entered the college coaching ranks as an assistant at Cal-State at Somona in '69, then was named head coach in '70. He spent two years there before returning to his alma mater in '72. He served as receivers coach at UCLA under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant when Dick Vermeil became the Bruins head coach in '74. Peterson stayed with Vermeil for two years at UCLA before the two made their move to the NFL, where he coached the Eagles receivers and tight ends.

Peterson has served on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholar Organization. He is also a member of the Kansas City chapter of the Young President's Organization.

The 48-year-old Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy in West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology in '67 and later received a doctorate in Higher Education from UCLA in '70.

Carl is single, resides in Kansas City, Missouri, and has one daughter, Dawn, who graduated from UCLA this year.

TIM CONNOLLY
Executive Vice President

Under the leadership of Tim Connolly, the Chiefs have excelled as well off the field as they have on it for the past two seasons. Connolly, who assumed his role as the Chiefs Executive Vice President in February of '89, has initiated several positive changes in the team's front office that have produced extremely favorable results. His intuition and organizational plans have made the Chiefs a "model" pro sports franchise.

Connolly put together a sales and marketing structure that has produced club records for season, group and suite sales. The Chiefs have ranked first or second in the NFL in season-ticket increase for three straight seasons and first or second in percentage increase in season tickets for the past four years. In '92, the Chiefs cut off season ticket sales at the 65,000 mark, giving the club its largest season ticket base since '74.

The 43-year-old Connolly has been instrumental in expanding both the Chiefs radio network and the preseason TV package, which now serves an ever-increasing fan base in the Midwest. In addition, he was responsible for the recently completed $8.5 million capital expansion program which included the new Chiefs practice facility, scoreboard systems and sound systems.

On the administrative front, the Chiefs are now considered the "leading edge." The recent installation of state-of-the-art computer systems, phone systems, and electronic ticketing systems have moved the Chiefs to the forefront of the NFL in technology and administrative productivity.

Connolly came to Kansas City after serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of two Bell Atlantic subsidiaries: Bell Atlantic Mobile Systems, Bell Atlantic's cellular phone company; and SORBUS Corporation, the largest independent computer maintenance organization in the world.

He began his business career in 1971 at the IBM Corporation, where he served in various sales, staff, and management positions. He graduated from George Washington University with a degree in finance.

Tim and his wife Kathy reside in Overland Park, Kansas, and have three children, Jennifer, Brianne, and John.

DENNIS THUM
Assistant General Manager

Dennis Thum, a Kansas City Chiefs employee since '74, begins his fourth year as Assistant General Manager. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the Chiefs President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer, in preparing the entire football budget, takes part in the negotiations of all player contracts and helps service the coaching staff, trainers, equipment personnel and video staff. He is also in charge of training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel.

The 40-year-old Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager since '84. Before that he served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chiefs Accountant in '82.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Thum joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College.

Born November 14, 1951, Dennis and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their children: Megan (11) and Lindsay (8).

HEAD COACH

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER

"Marty gave this team a sense of purpose," says Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Peterson. "The man is a winner. He knows what it takes to win and he's made this team a winning team.

"Marty would be the first one to say we're not where we want to be, but we're getting there."

Winning was something foreign to the Chiefs organization for the better part of the 15 years prior to Marty Schottenheimer's arrival in Kansas City in 1989. He has guided the Chiefs to three of their five winning seasons since 1974. His regular season record with the Chiefs stands at 29-18-1, good for a .615 winning percentage, the highest in franchise history.

Schottenheimer has restored a winning attitude throughout the proud Chiefs organization. Upon taking over the post, he said that winning was a habit. In just three seasons, the Chiefs have become addicted to his winning ways.

"I didn't know what the NFL was all about until Marty came to Kansas City," declared nine-year veteran defensive end Bill Maas. "Marty keeps everything constant. He works so hard during the week that you'd go out and do anything for him on Sundays. He's a man's man and a player's coach."

Former Chiefs quarterback Steve DeBerg, a 16-year veteran, concurred, saying, "I've only worked with one head coach who had as great a total understanding of football as Marty and that was Tom Landry. Marty could coach any phase of the game and coach it successfully."

Success has followed Schottenheimer wherever he has been. In seven full seasons as an NFL head coach, he has never experienced a losing season. He has taken his team to the playoffs six of his seven full seasons as a head coach. Only he and Chicago's Mike Ditka have taken their clubs to the playoffs six times since 1985.

After four-and-a-half years as the Cleveland Browns head coach, Schottenheimer took over the Chiefs reigns on January 24, 1989. He has a 73-45-1 career regular season record, and that translates into a .618 winning percentage, the fourth-highest among active coaches with at least 50 games.

The Chiefs have journeyed into the playoffs each of the past two seasons. The back-to-back playoff appearances were the first for the club since 1968-69. Last season, the Chiefs won their first playoff game since Super Bowl IV (Jan. 11, 1970) by upending the Los Angeles Raiders, 10-6, in an AFC Wild Card contest. That victory took place at Arrowhead Stadium, marking the first ever playoff game in the structure's 20-year-history. The season ended with a tough 37-14 loss to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. The Chiefs posted an impressive 6-2 record in the AFC West, sweeping the Raiders, San Diego, Chargers and Seattle Seahawks. The 10-6 regular season mark was good for the team's third-straight second-place finish in the division.

In 1990, Schottenheimer directed the Chiefs to an 11-5 record, the club's finest in 21 years. He also led the team to postseason play for just the second time since 1971 and the first time since 1986. In the first-round playoff game, the Chiefs lost a heartbreaking 17-16 decision to the Miami Dolphins.

The reversal of the Chiefs fortunes began in 1989, Schottenheimer's first season with the club. That season the club posted an 8-7-1 record and missed a playoff berth by ½-game.

Schottenheimer firmly established himself as one of the league's best head coaches before venturing to Kansas City. In his four full seasons as the Browns head coach, he produced four playoff berths, three AFC Central titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and took consensus AFC Coach of the Year honors in 1986.

Schottenheimer embarked upon his first head coaching job at midseason in 1984 when the Browns promoted him from defensive coordinator to head coach as San Rutigliano's replacement. He took over a 1-7 team, yet managed to direct the Browns to a 4-4 finish in the season's second half. Three of the four losses were by field goals late in the game.

In '85, his first full season as a head coach, Schottenheimer guided the Browns to the AFC Central title. The following year, he earned consensus AFC Coach of the Year honors after directing Cleveland to a 12-4 season record, a second straight division title and a spot in the AFC Championship Game, which the Browns dropped to the Denver Broncos, 23-20, in overtime. Cleveland gained a third straight AFC Central title in 1987, and for the second consecutive year advanced to the AFC title game, falling to Denver again, 38-33. Despite losing three quarterbacks and several other starters to injury in 1988, he led the Browns to a 10-6 record and playoff entry for the fourth year in a row.

Schottenheimer joined the Browns as defensive coordinator in 1980, and molded a powerful defense over the next five years. In 1984 his defense ranked first in the AFC and second to the Chicago Bears in the NFL.

Schottenheimer started his coaching career with the World Football League's Portland Storm in 1974. He opened that season as a player, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career, although he did continue tutoring the team's linebackers. A year later, he joined Bill Arnsparger – the architect of the Miami Dolphins "No-Name Defense" – with the New York Giants as linebackers coach, then he was promoted to defensive coordinator at the age of 34 under John McVay in 1977. He then became the Detroit Lions linebackers coach in 1978, staying two years before making the move to Cleveland.

Schottenheimer was an All-America linebacker at the University of Pittsburgh, where he was named to the school's all-time team. He played in the 1965 Chicago College All-Star Game (Browns beat All-Stars, 24-16). In that game, he played alongside Dick Butkus, Fred Biletnikoff, Roger Staubach, Bob Hayes and Bill Curry.

In 1965 Schottenheimer was selected in the fourth round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts and in the seventh round of the AFL draft by the Buffalo Bills. He played with the Bills from 1965-68 and the Boston Patriots in 1969-70 before being traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1971. After a training camp stint under Chuck Noll, he was traded to the Colts, but retired three weeks later when Baltimore released him. Following his retirement, he worked in real estate in Denver until resurfacing in the WFL.

Schottenheimer, who now serves on the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee, was an honor student and football/basketball standout at Ft. Cherry Hill High School in McDonald, Pa. He was an All-Western Pennsylvania linebacker and the center on the state championship basketball team. He then began his college career at Pitt, where he earned an English degree.

Schottenheimer is a licensed pilot and flew with the Navy's Blue Angels this past February.

Born September 23, 1943 in Canonsburg, Pa., Marty and his wife, Pat, have two children, a 22-year-old daughter, Kristen, who graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio this May, and an 18-year-old son, Brian, who is a freshman quarterback at the University of Kansas. The Schottenheimers reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

COACHING STAFF

DAVE ADOLPH, Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Dave Adolph brings 29 years of experience as an assistant coach in the NFL and collegiate ranks to the Chiefs. He has been a defensive coordinator in the league for seven years, most recently with the Los Angeles Raiders. Before his three-year stint with the Raiders, he served as Marty Schottenheimer's defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns in '84 and '86-88. In '85 he was an assistant coach with the San Diego Chargers.

In his last five years as a defensive coordinator, Adolph's teams have permitted just 17.6 points per game. His pass defenses have been ranked among the NFL's top six three of the past four years. In '90 the Raiders ranked fourth in the league in both overall defense and pass defense. The Raiders sack total of 90 the past two seasons ranks fifth in the league. While helping the Browns reach the AFC Championship Game for the second straight year in '88, he coached a unit that finished third in the NFL in total defense and led the league in fewest touchdowns allowed with 26.

The 55-year-old Adolph became the Browns defensive coordinator midway through the '84 season when Schottenheimer was promoted to head coach. Originally picked as the Browns defensive line coach in '79, he took over the club's linebackers in '81.

Before entering the pro coaching ranks, Adolph spent 16 years as a college assistant at several high-profile programs. He became an assistant to Rick Forzano at the University of Connecticut in '65. He then joined John Ray as defensive coordinator at Kentucky in '69. Following a four-year stint with the Wildcats, he became linebacker coach at Illinois, where he also stayed for four years. In '77-78 he worked with the legendary Woody Hayes at Ohio State.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Adolph attended Mogodore High School, then played guard and linebacker for the Akron Zips and was chosen the Ohio Valley Conference's top lineman in '58. After serving three years of Air Force duty ('59-61) as a commissioned officer, he began his coaching career at Cleveland's Shaw High School in '62. He followed that up by spending two years at his alma mater as offensive line coach.

Born June 6, 1937 in Akron, Dave and his wife, Bettey, live in Kansas City with their children Shane (18) and Heather (16). Dave has three sons: Mike (29), Mark (27) and Tom (22).

BRUCE ARIANS, Running Backs

A once dismal Chiefs rushing offense has been revitalized the past three seasons under the direction of running backs coach Bruce Arians. From '82-88, the Chiefs rushing offense ranked no higher than 19th and no individual runner had gained more than 700 yards, but all that has changed since Arians' arrival.

Three years ago, the Chiefs had the third-ranked ground attack in the league as fullback Christian Okoye galloped to the league's rushing crown with a team-record 1,480 yards. In '90, Kansas City had the NFL's 10th-rated rushing offense and featured two runners among the AFC's Top 10 who each gained more than 800 yards: Barry Word (4th with 1,015 yards) and Okoye (9th with 805 yards). Last season, the Chiefs averaged 138.6 yards per game, the third-best mark in both the AFC and NFL. The Chiefs 4.3 yards-per-carry average was the team's best since '87. Okoye rambled for 1,031 yards, making the Chiefs one of just four clubs with a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past three seasons.

Arians has had a dramatic impact on the Chiefs young – and largely unheraled – group of backs, especially Okoye, Word, Harvey Williams, Todd McNair and Bill Jones. In his first two seasons with the team, Okoye gained 1,133 yards and six TDs, and in the past three, under Arians, he has 3,316 yards and 28 scores. Before pounding out a team-high 1,015 yards in '90, Word had produced just 133 yards in two years with the Saints. Williams made an impact as a rookie, leading the club in all-purpose yardage. McNair, who Arians coached at Temple, has become one of the foremost third-down specialists in the NFL in just three pro seasons. Jones, a 12th-round draft choice in '89, is a punishing blocker and leads all Chiefs backs with six receiving touchdowns the last two years.

Before coming to Kansas City, Arians was head coach at Temple University, where he led his team to a 27-39 record. The 39-year-old native of York, Pennsylvania, coached Temple to a 4-7 record during his first season as a head coach in '83. The following campaign, he guided the Owls to a 6-5 mark, the school's first winning season in five years. His teams finished with a 4-7 mark in '85, '87 and '88 and a 6-5 record in '86.

At Temple, Arians coached McNair, who has been one of the Chiefs top offensive weapons the past three years, and former Chief Paul Palmer, who finished his collegiate career as the NCAA's sixth all-time leading rusher with 4,895 yards.

Before accepting the head coach position at Temple, Arians coached the offensive backfield at the University of Alabama for two years ('81-82) under the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. In '78-80, he tutored the receivers and running backs at Mississippi State. He coached the offensive backfield at Virginia Tech, his alma mater, in '77 after spending two years there as a graduate assistant. Arians played quarterback at Virginia Tech and was his team's leading passer in '74.

Born October 3, 1952, Bruce and his wife, Christine, a graduate of Temple Law School, have two children, Jake and Kristi, and reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Arians' Coaching Career: Virginia Tech 1975-1977; Mississippi State University 1978-80; University of Alabama 1981-82; Temple University 1983-88 (head coach); joined Chiefs in 1989.

RUSS BALL, Assistant Strength and Conditioning

Beginning his fourth season as a strength and conditioning specialist in the NFL, Russ Ball assists Dave Redding in the physical development and maturity of the club's athletes.

Ball was the head strength coach at the University of Missouri from '82 to '88. In '82 he replaced Redding, who left the Tigers to join the Cleveland Browns. Ball was Missouri's assistant weight coach in '81 and '82.

The 32-year-old Columbia, Missouri, native earned four letters as a center at Central Missouri State University. He was an all-conference selection as a senior in '80. Ball was an all-state performer at Columbia Hickman High School in Columbia, Missouri. In '90, he earned a Master's Degree in Human Performace from the University of Missouri.

Born August 28, 1959, Russ and his wife, Chele, live in Kansas City, Missouri.

Ball's Coaching Career: University of Missouri 1981-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

HERMAN EDWARDS, Defensive Backs

Herman Edwards first came to the Chiefs in '89 as the recipient of the club's Black Coaching Fellowship and later moved into the club's personnel department as a talent scout. For each of the past three seasons, he has served as an assistant secondary coach with the Chiefs during training camp.

From '87 through '89, the 38-year-old Edwards was the defensive secondary coach at San Jose State. During each of his three seasons there, San Jose State's opponents completed less than 50 percent of their pass attempts.

Edwards' NFL career began with the Philadelphia Eagles in '77 when he was signed as a rookie free agent by Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Manager Carl Peterson, who was the Eagles Player Personnel Director at the time. Peterson and Dick Vermeil, the former Eagles and UCLA head coach, knew about Edwards because they originally tried to recruit him to attend UCLA out of high school. Edwards chose Cal-Berkeley, but helped Vermeil and the Eagles to a Super Bowl appearance following the '80 season.

As a starting cornerback for the Eagles from '77 through '85, he played in 135 straight games and ranks second on the club's all-time interception list with 33. He also made five interceptions in postseason play. He was a second team All-NFC pick in '80 and '82. He played a major role in one of the most incredible plays in NFL history in '78 when he scooped up a fumble by quarterback Joe Pisarcik and ran 26 yards for a touchdown with just 31 seconds remaining in a 19-17 win over the New York Giants that has become known as the "Miracle of the Meadowlands."

He lettered at San Diego State in '76 after transferring from Cal-Berkeley, where he was a two-time first team All-Pac 10 pick. He owns a share of a Cal record by intercepting four passes in a single game.

Born April 27, 1954 in Monmouth, New Jersey, Herman grew up in Seaside, California. He is single and resides in Kansas City.

Edwards' Coaching Career: San Jose State 1987-89; joined Chiefs in 1992.

HOWARD MUDD, Offensive Line

Howard Mudd, who begins his 19th season as an NFL assistant coach, is the man responsible for reshaping and rejuvenating the Chiefs offensive line. Kansas City's offensive front five now ranks among the finest in the league, both as run blockers and pass protectors.

Mudd's offensive line has paved the way for a rushing offense that has averaged 133.2 yards per game the past three years and has produced three straight 1,000-yard rushers (Christian Okoye in '89 and '91 and Barry Word in '90). That same unit has permitted just 43 sacks the last two years, the third-fewest in the NFL. Last season, the Chiefs offensive line helped Okoye pound out 1,031 yards. The club's quarterbacks were dumped just 21 times, the fewest in the conference and third-fewest in the league. Behind Mudd's offensive front in '89, Okoye rushed for an NFL-best and club-record 1,480 yards while the team's quarterbacks were sacked on just 23 occasions. The following season, Mudd helped left tackle John Alt to achieve All-NFL accolades from USA Today and Sports Illustrated, and guard Dave Szott and center Tim Grunhard gain all-rookie mentions. Alt earned All-NFL honors again in '91.

The 50-year-old Midland, Michigan, native began his college coaching career in '72 as an assistant at the University of California. Two years later, he moved into the professional ranks as the San Diego Chargers offensive line coach. Following a three-year stint in San Diego, he tutored the offensive lines with the San Francisco 49ers in '77 and the Seattle Seahawks from '78-82.

In '83 Mudd moved to Cleveland and coached the offensive line there until joining the Chiefs in '89. The Browns offensive line played a major part in the club's four straight playoff appearances. In '87, the Browns allowed just 29 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the AFC. In addition, the club averaged 116.3 yards rushing during the regular season and 151.1 yards per game during the playoffs. In '85, Mudd's offensive line paved the way for two 1,000-yard rushers — Kevin Mack and Earnest Byner.

Mudd was a two-time All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowl performer during his eight NFL seasons as a standout guard. He spent six seasons with the 49ers ('64-69) and two with the Chicago Bears ('70-71). He was selected by San Francisco in the ninth round of the '64 draft after a standout college career at Hillsdale (Mich.) College. He is enshrined in the NAIA Hall of Fame and was also named to the All-1960's NFL team. Mudd graduated from Hillsdale with a bachelor of science degree in biology.

Born February 10, 1942, Howard has a son, Darren, 23, and a daughter, Ami, 22. He and his wife, Shirley, reside in Blue Springs, Missouri.

Mudd's Coaching Career: University of California 1972-73; San Diego Chargers 1974-76; San Francisco 49ers 1977, Seattle Seahawks 1978-82; Cleveland Browns 1983-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

JOE PENDRY, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterback

Under the watchful eye of fourth-year coordinator Joe Pendry, the Chiefs offense has made steady advances the past three seasons. In '91, the Chiefs averaged 332.6 total yards per game to rank third in the AFC, for the second straight year, and fifth in the NFL. The Chiefs offense had not ranked as high since the AFL-NFL merger in '70. The club generated 5,321 total yards, the second-most in club history, and established a new team record with 322 first downs. The team's rushing offense ranked third in both the AFC and NFL in '91, and has produced a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past three seasons.

The Chiefs averaged 325.9 yards per game in '90 to rank third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL. That season the team had a 1,000-yard rusher (Barry Word) and 1,000-yard receiver (Stephone Paige) in the same season for the first time in franchise history. In '89 the Chiefs ranked sixth and 13th with 329.1 yards per outing.

The past two seasons, the Chiefs have reduced the number of big plays opposing defenses have produced. In '90-91 Kansas City's quarterbacks were sacked just 43 times, the third-fewest in the NFL behind Washington (31) and New Orleans (39). The past two years, the Chiefs have had the second-fewest turnovers (41), second-fewest interceptions (19) and third-fewest lost fumbles (22). The club's five total interceptions in '90 were the fewest ever by an NFL team in a 16-game season.

Pendry, who enters his 24th year of coaching, has coached every offensive position, served as an offensive coordinator and been a head coach during his career. In addition to calling and designing plays, he also works with the Chiefs quarterbacks.

A 44-year-old native of Matheny, West Virginia, Pendry played a major part in the success of the Browns offense from '85-88. He joined the Browns in '85 and served in several capacities with the team, including offensive coordinator for a year and running backs coach for three years. Under Pendry's guidance in '85, Kevin Mack and Earnest Byner became just the third running back duo in league history to rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

Pendry's first professional coaching experience came with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars, serving as the club's offensive coordinator during the team's '83 championship season. Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Peterson was in charge of the the Stars operation at the time and fellow Kansas City assistant Jim Erkenbeck was the team's offensive line coach. Pendry was named head coach of the USFL's Pittsburgh Maulers for 10 games in '84.

Before entering the pro ranks, Pendry spent 15 years as a college assistant coach. A spinal injury during his sophomore year at West Virginia University ended his playing career, but afforded him the opportunity to start his coaching career. He was a student/coach his final two undergraduate years at West Virginia, then was appointed graduate assistant in '69 before becoming head coach of the freshman squad in '70. He coached the Mountaineers receivers and offensive line from '71-74.

After a year at Kansas State as offensive coordinator, Pendry returned to West Virginia in the same capacity from '76-77. He handled the University of Pittsburgh's quarterbacks in '78 and offensive line in '79 before taking over as Michigan State's offensive coordinator during the '80 and '81 seasons.

Born August 5, 1947, Joe and his wife, Sandi, have a son, Joe (22) and a daughter, Jill (20) and reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Pendry's Coaching Career: West Virginia University 1967-74, 1976-77; Kansas State University 1975; University of Pittsburgh 1978-79; Michigan State University 1980-81; Philadelphia Stars (USFL) 1983; Pittsburgh Maulers (USFL, head coach) 1984; Cleveland Browns 1985-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

TOM PRATT, Defensive Line

In just three seasons, Tom Pratt has made a notable impact on a young, talented Chiefs defensive line. The past two seasons, Pratt's line played a major role in the Chiefs "big play" defense. In '90-91, the Chiefs produced 99 sacks, the second-most in the NFL, and the defensive line generated 41 of the takedowns, while also adding 16 forced fumbles and 15 fumble recoveries.

Pratt, who enters his 29th season as an NFL defensive assistant, has aided in the development of two young defensive linemen – Neil Smith and Dan Saleaumua – and helped a veteran one – Bill Maas – make a successful move from nose tackle to end. Smith has 200 tackles, 25 sacks, 11 forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries since Pratt's arrival. Saleaumua has been the top tackler on the line the past two years and leads all NFL defenders with 13 fumble recoveries the past three seasons. Maas was moved from nose tackle, where he was a two-time Pro Bowl performer to defensive end in '90, and the switch produced one of his best campaigns last season (38 tackles and four sacks).

Pratt is in his second stint as the Chiefs defensive line coach, having served in the same capacity under Hank Stram and Paul Wiggin from '63-77. Following his 15-year stay in Kansas City, he made stops at New Orleans ('78-80) and Cleveland ('81-88).

Under Pratt's tutelage the Browns defensive front played a vital role in the Browns four consecutive playoff visits. Pratt's unit helped the Browns achieve the sixth-rated defense in the NFL in '88, while in '87 Cleveland allowed the AFC's fewest rushing yards and permitted the league's fewest touchdowns.

The 57-year-old Beloit, Wisconsin, native got his first pro coaching experience with the Chiefs when he joined Stram's staff in '63. During his stay in Kansas City, the Chiefs made two Super Bowl appearances following the '66 and '69 seasons, and earned an NFL Championship ring when the Chiefs won Super Bowl IV. One of his finest coaching accomplishments was the defensive line formation of tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown that led the Chiefs to their only NFL title.

After playing linebacker at the University of Miami from '53-56, Pratt stayed at his alma mater as a Hurricane assistant for four years. He coached at the University of Southern Mississippi from '61-62 before joining Stram's staff in Kansas City.

Born June 21, 1935, Tom and his wife, Hope, live in Leawood, Kansas and have three children, Kendra (30), Shana (27) and Tyler (21).

Pratt's Coaching Career: University of Miami 1957-60; University of Southern Mississippi 1961-62; Kansas City Chiefs 1963-77; New Orleans Saints 1978-80; Cleveland Browns 1981-88; rejoined Chiefs in 1989.

JIMMY RAYE, Offensive Assistant/Tight Ends

Jimmy Raye, who has been an assistant coach in the NFL the past 15 years, begins his first season in Kansas City as an offensive assistant and tight ends coach. Raye has been an offensive coordinator as well as a receivers and running backs coach. Under his tutelage, two different receivers (Alfred Jenkins and Henry Ellard) and two tight ends (Junior Miller and Jimmie Giles) have participated in the Pro Bowl.

Last season the 46-year-old Raye served as the Los Angeles Rams wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. He spent '90 as the New England Patriots offensive coordinator. He started his professional coaching career in '77 as the San Francisco 49ers receivers coach, working with 49er great Gene Washington. In '78-79, he tutored the Detroit Lions offensive backs. Chiefs Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer was on the Lions coaching staff at the same time. He then began the first of two stints with the Atlanta Falcons, coaching the receivers there from '80-82, when he shared in an NFC West title and two playoff berths, and again from '87-89. In '83 he served as the Rams receivers coach, and in '84, he was promoted to offensive coordinator. In '85-86 he was the Tampa Bay Buccaneers offensive coordinator.

Raye spent one season ('69) as a defensive back with the Philadelphia Eagles. He then returned to his alma mater, Michigan State, as an assistant coach in '71. He stayed with the Spartans for five years before moving on to Wyoming, where he spent one season.

Raye was a quarterback at Michigan State from '65-67, and led the Spartants to a pair of Big Ten Conference titles, including a Rose Bowl appearance ('66). He started for the Spartans in the "Battle of the Century," the '66 game between Michigan State and Notre Dame, the top two ranked teams in the nation, that ended in a 10-10 tie.

Born March 26, 1946 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jimmy and his wife, Edwena, live in Kansas City. They have two children, Robin (24) and Jimmy III (22), who was a receiver at San Diego State from '88-90.

Raye's Coaching Career: Michigan State 1971-75; Wyoming 1976; San Francisco 49ers 1977; Detroit Lions 1978-79; Atlanta Falcons 1980-82, 1987-89; Los Angeles Rams 1983-84, 1991; Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1985-86; New England Patriots 1990; joined Chiefs in 1992.

DAVE REDDING, Strength and Conditioning

A good portion of the credit for the Chiefs becoming one of the NFL's premier teams must go to Dave Redding, who coordinates the club's off-season strength and conditioning program and the in-season maintenance efforts. One of the most highly-respected strength coaches in all of football, Redding redesigned the club's weight-training facilities and instituted a personalized conditioning program in '89, his first year with the Chiefs. Redding has created an environment that keeps players training in Kansas City year-round. More than 75% of the club's players participated in the volunteer programs on a regular basis.

"Dave Redding, in my opinion, is the very best in the field," said head coach Marty Schottenheimer. "He's a tough and demanding coach who sets high standards. Dave works very closely with the players and produces great results."

Redding became the Browns first strength and conditioning coach in '82 and stayed in that capacity until joining the Chiefs in '89. A 40-year-old native of North Platte, Nebraska, Redding instituted a highly-successful program with the Browns that included weightlifting, but also put an emphasis on flexibility, running, plyometric drills and speed enhancement — all of which he has stressed to Chiefs players the past two off-seasons.

Before working with professional athletes, Redding spent six years as a collegiate strength coach. He spent one year at the University of Nebraska ('76), his alma mater, one at Washington State University ('77) and four at the University of Missouri ('78-81). He worked with the defensive ends in addition to his strength duties at Washington State.

Redding was a three-year letter winner at Nebraska, where he played defensive end. Upon completion of his bachelor of science degree in physical education, he worked as a graduate assistant at Nebraska in '76.

Born June 14, 1952, Dave lives in Lee's Summit, Missouri, and has one daughter Taylor Reta (5).

Redding's Coaching Career: University of Nebraska 1976; Washington State University 1977; University of Missouri 1978-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

AL SAUNDERS, Assistant Head Coach/Receivers

Regarded as one of the finest offensive minds in professional football, Al Saunders begins his fourth season with the Chiefs. Saunders has served as both a head coach and offensive coordinator during his coaching career, and under his direction, Kansas City's receivers have continued to blossom.

Saunders has a knack for getting the most out of young receivers. Last year, he oversaw the tremendous progress of third-year wide out Robb Thomas, who led the club with 43 catches for 495 yards, and all-rookie wide receiver Tim Barnett, who contributed 41 grabs for 564 yards and five touchdowns. In addition, the speedy J.J. Birden (27-465-2) enjoyed his finest season as a pro, and veteran receiver Emile Harry (35-431-3) continued to shine. The production from the receiver positions was especially impressive in '91, considering the fact that Stephone Paige, the club's fourth all-time receiver, played in just three games due to injury. In '90 Saunders helped Paige collect his first 1,000-yard season.

His relentless efforts and "hands on" approach should help the fledgling Chiefs receivers climb to the levels of some of his other star pupils.

Saunders has had a dramatic impact on an impressive list of offensive players since his coaching career began in '70. During his 22 years as a coach on both the college and professional levels, he has been central in the development of Charlie Joiner, Kellen Winslow, Wes Chandler, Pete Holohan, Lynn Swann, Wesley Walker, Henry Marshall, Willie Gault, Tim McGee, Anthony Miller, Gary Anderson and Lionel James.

Saunders served as head coach of the San Diego Chargers from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. He guided the club to a 17-22 record, including an 8-7 record in '87, which was the team's first winning mark in five years. Under his direction in '87, the Chargers won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons.

The 45-year-old Saunders joined the Chargers in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exciting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. San Diego led the league in passing yardage in '83 and '85.

Saunders entered the NFL after 13 years as a successful college assistant coach. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California in '70-71. He then coached the receivers at the University of Missouri in '72 and was the offensive backfield coach at Utah State from '73-75. He was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of California from '76-81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference and school records. In '82 he was offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee, where he coached standout receivers Gault and McGee.

Saunders was born in London, England, which made him only the third foreign-born head coach in NFL history. He became a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. He was a four-year starter, team captain and an Academic All-America as a defensive back at San Jose State ('66-69) and is also enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. He graduated with honors as a physical education and English major in '69 and obtained a master's degree in education from Stanford in '70. As recipient of California State's Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he was a doctorial candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC. Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89.

Born February 1, 1947, Al and his wife, Karen, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, with their two sons, Bobby (15) and Joey (12) and daughter Korrin (11).

Saunders' Coaching Career: University of Southern California 1970-71; University of Missouri 1972; Utah State University 1973-75; University of California 1976-81; University of Tennessee 1982; San Diego Chargers 1983-88 (head coach 1986-88); joined Chiefs in 1989.

KURT SCHOTTENHEIMER, Special Teams

Kurt Schottenheimer begins his fourth season as the Chiefs special teams coach. Since his arrival, the club has maintained its kick-blocking superiority and made impressive advances on both kickoffs and punts.

Last season, the Chiefs kickoff return average of 20.4 yards was the team's best in five years. The team also allowed just 7.0 yards per punt return, the lowest yield since '81, and increased their net punting average to 35.0 yards. The hard-hitting special teams group also forced four fumbles, recovering two.

Schottenheimer was the co-winner of the NFL 1990 Special Teams Coach of the Year Award. Under his guidance that season, Kansas City's special teams units reached new heights. The Chiefs blocked an NFL-record six punts during the regular season and added another during the playoff loss to Miami. The club also rejected a field goal and deflected a punt. Two of the blocked punts were returned for touchdowns. The Chiefs allowed just 17.2 yards per kickoff return, down from 21.0 a year earlier. Kicker Nick Lowery also prospered under Schottenheimer's watchful eye. Lowery was voted to the Pro Bowl after making 34 of 37 field goal tries, good for 91.9%, the fourth-highest single-season total in league history.

Schottenheimer, the younger brother of Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer, is in his fifth season as an NFL assistant. He joined the Chiefs in '89 after spending two years as the Browns special teams coach.

In '88 Schottenheimer's kickoff coverage unit ranked second in the NFL with a 16.2-yard average while the Browns kickoff return unit placed sixth in the league with a 21.1-yard average. That season, the Browns also blocked two punts, both for touchdowns, and one field goal. In '87 opponents returned just 17 punts, by far the lowest number in the league.

A 42-year-old native of McDonald, Pennsylvania, Schottenheimer entered the pro ranks after putting together an impressive major college coaching resume. He served as Lou Holtz's linebackers coach at the University of Notre Dame in '86. Prior to that appointment, he spent two seasons ('84-85) as linebackers coach at Louisiana State University under defensive genius Bill Arnsparger.

Schottenheimer started his coaching career from '74-75 as the defensive coordinator at William Patterson State College in New Jersey. He spent the '77 season at Ridgefield Park (N.J.) High School, and the following five seasons ('78-82) at Michigan State University, the first two as a graduate assistant coaching defensive backs under Darryl Rogers. He coached the Spartans outside linebackers his last three years, with All-America pick Carl Banks, among his pupils. He coached at Tulane University in '83.

Scottenheimer was a J.C. All-America quarterback at Coffeyville (Kan.) Junior College, where he led the nation in passing as a sophomore. He moved on to the University of Miami, where he started his last two years as a defensive back and earned his bachelor's degree in education in '71.

Born October 1, 1949, Kurt and his wife Colleen, have two daughters, Steele (9) and Sloane (6), and live in Overland Park, Kansas.

Schottenheimer's Coaching Career: William Patterson State College 1974-75; Michigan State University 1978-82; Tulane University 1983; Louisiana State University 1984-85; University of Notre Dame 1986; Cleveland Browns 1987-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

DARVIN WALLIS, Special Assistant/Quality Control

Darvin Wallis, an 21-year coaching veteran, is responsible for the team's game analysis, including film breakdown, computer data, self-scouting and the analysis of opponents' offenses. Wallis is also responsible for defensive quality control and developmental studies and research. He joined the Chiefs after spending seven years in the same capacity with the Browns organization.

"Darvin is a fine, young coach and a tireless worker who watches more video than anyone in the organization," said head coach Marty Schottenheimer. "He is responsible for all phases of quality control and computer data."

The 43-year-old Ft. Branch, Indiana, native joined the Browns in '82 after tutoring the tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi for two seasons ('80-81). During his two seasons there he was also heavily involved in the school's computer scouting system. Wallis was the offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University from '78-79 and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College in Alamosa, Colorado, from '76-77.

After graduating from the University of Arizona, where he played defensive end, Wallis earned his master's degree at Adams State. He entered the coaching world in '71 at Wilcox (Ariz.) High School, then served as head coach at Ajo (Ariz.) High School from '72-75.

Born February 14, 1949, Darvin and his wife, Vicky, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, with their three children, Darvin, Jr. (9), Tyson (6) and Austin (4).

Wallis' Coaching Background: Adams State College 1976-77; Tulane University 1978-79; University of Mississippi 1980-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

PLAYER PERSONNEL STAFF

LYNN STILES, Vice President of Player Personnel

Stiles, who begins his 14th season in the NFL, joined the Chiefs this year as Vice President of Player Personnel. He succeeds Whitey Dovell, who passed away this past May. Stiles will oversee all of the club's scouting operations. Stiles joined the Chiefs as a consultant to the personnel department in February of this year and was elevated to his current position in May.

The 51-year-old Stiles rejoins Carl Peterson, the Chiefs President/General Manager. Stiles and Peterson worked together from '72-75 at UCLA and from '79-82 in the Philadelphia Eagles organization.

Stiles was most recently an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers. He joined Bill Walsh's staff in '87 as special teams coach, and was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in '89 by Head Coach George Seifert. In '91, he picked up additional duties as offensive line assistant. He helped the 49ers win back-to-back Super Bowl titles in '88-89.

Prior to his five-year stint with the 49ers, Stiles served as an assistant coach and player personnel executive director with the Eagles. From '79-82, he coached the special teams and tight ends, while serving as an administrative assistant to head coaches Dick Vermeil and Marion Campbell. He then followed Peterson as Director of Player Personnel and was eventually made Executive Director of Player Personnel with the club. He helped Philadelphia acquire such talents as quarterback Randall Cunningham, defensive end Reggie White, linebacker Seth Joyner, defensive end Clyde Simmons, safety Wes Hopkins, safety Andre Waters and running back Keith Byars.

Stiles was the Head Coach at San Jose State from '76-78, compiling an 18-16 record and two conference championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of quarterback Steve DeBerg, who was named Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. He served assistantships at Utah ('63-65), Iowa ('66-70) and UCLA ('71-75) before taking over the San Jose State position.

Stiles played guard at Utah from '61-62, taking part in the '62 All-American Bowl. He was an all-state pick and captain of his football squad at Reno (Nev.) High School.

Born April 12, 1941, in Kermit, Texas, Lynn and his wife, Marigene, live in Kansas City, and have four children, Staci (25), Shon (2[illegible]), Tiffany (13) and Blake (11).

MARK HATLEY, Director of Pro Personnel

Mark Hatley, who has been with the Chiefs since 1987, was promoted to Director of Pro Personnel in '91. After coaching the club's linebackers for one season, he joined the team's scouting department, where he has played a vital role, especially in the procurement of pro personnel. Hatley's primary focus has been with the scounting of unprotected "Plan B" players and other available free agents. Hatley came to Kansas City after a two-year stint with the New Orleans Saints.

Hatley's first NFL experience was with the Saints in 1984-85, when his duties included scouting and defensive quality control. He moved into the pro ranks after 11 years as an assistant coach on the college level. The former Oklahoma State linebacker, following his graduation in 1972, coached three years at his alma mater. He then moved to Tulsa for one season in 1976 before spending six years at Texas Christian (1977-82). He joined the Baylor staff in 1983 for a year before landing his first NFL job with the Saints.

A 42-year-old native of Borger, Texas, Hatley and his wife, Claudia, have one daughter, Eliza, and reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

TERRY BRADWAY, National Scout

Terry Bradway, who has a diversified football background as a player, coach and scout, begins his first season in the Chiefs organization as the club's national scout.

The 37-year-old Bradway comes to Kansas City after spending five years as a full-time scout with the New York Giants. He played a key role in the personnel department that helped the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XXV. He served as a part-time scout with the Giants following a three-year run ('83-85) as Assistant Director of Player Personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars. During his stay in the USFL, he served under Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Peterson, who held the same title with the Stars.

Before entering the pro ranks, Bradway was an assistant coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York. Prior to that he was a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati. He earned a master's degree in health and physical education from Glassboro (N.J.) State. He was a three-year letter winner as a defensive back at Trenton State College, where he received a degree in health and physical education.

Bradway played prep football at Holy Sprit High School in Absecon, New Jersey. Born May 19, 1955, in Trenton, Terry and his wife, Kathleen, have two children, Michael (5) and Jennifer (3).

BILL BAKER, Talent Scout

Bill Baker, who has been a coach or scout since 1955, begins his fourth year with the Chiefs. Baker is responsible for the southwest region of the country.

Before coming to Kansas City, Baker was most recently a scout for the Philadelphia Eagles from '84-87. Prior to that, he was a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers ('83) and player personnel director of the USFL's Arizona Wranglers ('82). He scouted for the Eagles previously from '75-81, serving under Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Peterson, who was Philadelphia's player personnel chief from '77-81.

The 64-year-old native of Knoxville, Tennessee, played college football at Tennessee ('47-49) and at Wyoming ('50-51) as a center and linebacker. From '55-61 he was head coach at Chadron (Neb.) State College, where he registered a 30-26-1 record. He then moved to Wyoming, where he was the offensive line and kicking coaching from '62-70. He performed those same duties at Arizona from '71-72.

Bill and his wife, Marjorie, reside in Tuscon, Arizona. They have one daughter, Vicky, and two sons, Bill, Jr. (a scout with the New Orleans Saints), and Mike.

CHUCK COOK, Talent Scout

In his ninth year as a talent scout for the Chiefs, Chuck Cook joined the club's personnel department in 1984 after a four-year coaching career on both the college and professional level. His area of concentration as a Chiefs scout is the country's southeast region.

Cook came to Kansas City after serving two years as an offensive assistant with the Arizona Wrangers of the USFL. He began coaching in 1980 as a graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming.

A native of Andalusia, Alabama, Cook was a wide receiver and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. He graduated in 1980, and after several tryouts in the NFL as a player, began his coaching career later that year. His father, Hamp, is a scout with the New Orleans Saints. He resides in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

ROGER JACKSON, Talent Scout

Roger Jackson, a veteran of the NFL as both a player and scout, joined the Chiefs player personnel department as a talent scout in June of this year.

The 33-year-old Jackson spent four years as a scout with the Denver Broncos and one season as a collegiate coach before joining the Chiefs. He was a regional scout for the Broncos in '87-88 and again in '90-91. In '89, he coached the defensive backs at Howard University.

Jackson played five seasons as a defensive back with the Broncos ('82-85 and '87). He played in a total of 53 games, collecting two interceptions and one fumble recovery. He joined the Broncos as a rookie free agent out of Bethune-Cookman in '82.

Jackson earned four letters as a defensive back and kick return specialist at Bethune-Cookman. He also competed in track as a long jumper, earning a pair of letters. He graduated from Bethune-Cookman with a degree in physical education.

Born February 28, 1959 in Macon, Georgia, Roger is single and lives in his hometown.

FRED SCHUBACH, Talent Scout

A 24-year NFL scouting veteran, Fred Schubach begins his sixth season as a talent scout for the Chiefs. His responsibilities are primarily in the northeast region of the country where he resides.

Schubach spent 10 years as the player personnel director of the Baltimore Colts. He began his tenure as head of the Colts scouting operations in 1973, staying until the franchise moved to Indianapolis.

After his departure from the Colts, Schubach served as a talent scout for the Buffalo Bills from 1983-84. In 1985 he established his own scouting combine and worked the east coast region for the Chicago Bears and Los Angeles Raiders. He joined the Chiefs staff in 1986. Fred has two sons, Fred, Jr. (35) and Richard (33).

CHIEFS RETIRE JERSEY NUMBERS OF LANIER, STENERUD AND BUCHANAN

Three former Chiefs players, who have each previously received football's highest honor – enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio – had their jersey numbers retired in 1992. Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt announced that the numbers of Buck Buchanan (86), Willie Lanier (63), and Jan Stenerud (3) have been scheduled for retirement. They will join the previously retired jerseys of Bobby Bell (78), Len Dawson (16), Abner Haynes (28), Mack Lee Hill (36) and Stone Johnson (33).

Hunt, associated with the organization since its beginning in 1960, said, "I have had the good fortune to attend 626 of our games in our 32 seasons. From personal observation, it doesn't take a genius to know that Willie, Jan and Buck are three of the greatest players in Pro Football history. Each has played a positive, distinctive part in the story of Kansas City football, and we are pleased at this time to further honor their careers with this announcement.

"Additionally, today we want to confirm a continuing policy of retiring the jersey numbers of Chiefs players who are inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and who have played a majority of their careers with the team."

Hunt pointed out, "Buchanan's jersey number is 86 and is currently being used by wide receiver Emile Harry, while defensive end Bill Maas has worn Lanier's number 63 for the past eight year. Both current Chiefs players are in the midst of their highly successful careers and will continue to wear their numbers until the conclusion of their Chiefs playing days. At that time, the respective jersey numbers will officially be retired by the organization."

FOOTBALL STAFF

ANDRE BRUCE
Head Groundskeeper

After serving his apprenticeship under George Toma for 13 years, Andre Bruce was elevated to his present position of Head Groundskeeper in March of '90. Bruce replaces Chip Toma, who was promoted to Head Groundskeeper for the Truman Sports Complex earlier in '90.

Since '76, Bruce has served the Chiefs and the NFL on many assignments, including work on 13 Super Bowls and ten Pro Bowl games. Bruce began working for the Chiefs shortly after graduating from Central High School in Kansas City, Missouri, in May of '76.

Andre was born on March 9, 1958 in Kansas City, Missouri, where he still resides with his wife, Paulette, and their two sons, Andre, Jr. (14) and Corey (5).

MIKE DAVIDSON
Equipment Manager

Mike Davidson begins his fourth season as the Chiefs Equipment Manager. Before coming to Kansas City, Davidson spent five years as assistant equipment manager for the Cleveland Browns. He is responsible for the outfitting of the team's players and coaches as well as the purchasing and maintaining of the club's equipment.

The 36-year-old Davidson joined the Browns in '84 and assisted in the club's equipment purchasing, inventory, maintenance and travel arrangements. Before taking the Browns position, he was a marketing education coordinator at Thomas W. Harvey High School in Painesville, Ohio ('83-84) and an occupational work adjustment coordinator at Kimpton Middle Schools in Stow, Ohio ('78-83).

A '78 graduate of Bowling Green State University (Bowling Green, Ohio) with a B.S. in Education, Davidson is a native of Cleveland. Mike and his wife, Jackie, reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

Davidson has two assistants: Allen Wright, who has held his current position for the past six years, and Darin Kerns, who was a part-time Chiefs employee for three years before joining the club on a full-time basis this year.

MIKE DENNIS
Video Coordinator

Mike Dennis begins his 16th season as the Chiefs Video Coordinator. Dennis coordinates the filming of all Chiefs games and practices and organizes a library of both NFL and college game films.

The 37-year-old Dennis joined the Chiefs as the full-time Film Coordinator in '77 after helping the club on a part-time basis in '75-76 when he was a free-lance cinematographer. From '73-75, he worked for Calvin Productions, a motion picture house in Kansas City that specialized in documentaries, industrial films and television spots.

A native of Ft. Riley, Kansas, Dennis graduated from Ft. Osage High School in Kansas City, Missouri.

Mike and his wife, Bonnie, live in Kansas City with their two children, Matthew (9) and Kyle (7).

Dennis' assistant is Mike Kirk, who begins his seventh season with the Chiefs. A graduate of the University of Missouri, Kirk was the first full-time film assistant hired by the club.

DAVE KENDALL, Trainer

Just the second head trainer in Chiefs history, Dave Kendall is in his ninth season at that position after serving as the assistant trainer under Wayne Rudy for nine years. Kendall and his assistant, Bud Epps, were honored as the "NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year" in March of '92.

Upon Rudy's retirement in 1984, Kendall was named to the top post. The 41-year-old Kendall served as assistant trainer at Pittsburg State (Kan.) before joining the Chiefs staff in 1975. He graduated from Pittsburg State with a degree in physical education.

A graduate of Wyandotte High School in Kansas City, Kendall is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife, Jacki, the daughter of late NFL Hall of Famer Jack Christiansen, live in Lee's Summit, Mo. with their daughter, Kristen.

Kendall's assistant is Bud Epps, who is in his ninth season with the Chiefs. Epps was an assistant trainer at the University of Missouri, his alma mater, for eight years before moving to Kansas City.

FRONT OFFICE

KEN BLUME
Director of Development

Ken Blume, who has worked with the Chiefs since '85, begins his fourth year as the Club's Director of Development. He is responsible for the sales and service of luxury boxes, coordination of volunteer organizations (Chiefs Club, Red Coaters and Ambassadors), and special projects.

Before assuming his current position, the 37-year-old Blume served as Director of Marketing for two years and Sales Manager for two years. He was an administrator at Colonial Presbyterian Church from '80-'85. Before that he was vice president at Regan Supply Company and an executive assistant at Total Engineering Services Team.

Blume received an M.B.A. from Rockhurst College in '87 and a B.S. in psychology from Texas Christian in '77. Ken and his wife, Elizabeth, have two children, Dayton (5) and Rebekah (4).

JEFFREY KLEIN
Director of Stadium Operations

After serving a nine-year tenure with the Seattle Mariners' front office, Jeff Klein joined the Chiefs as the team's new Director of Stadium Operations in July of '91. Under his direction and supervision, the Chiefs have made positive moves in crowd management and stadium improvements.

As the Mariners' Director of Stadium Operations from 1981 until this year, the 37-year-old Klein was responsible for the daily operations of the Kingdome, Seattle's baseball stadium. His responsibilities included the training and supervision of event personnel, as well as the development and enforcement of stadium security plans. Klein was also selected to work for the Baseball Commissioner at the 1986 American League Championship Series and the 1990 All-Star Game. Before joining the Mariners, he worked with several minor league teams, most recently with the AAA Portland Beavers as the Ticket Manager from 1979 to '81.

Klein earned a B.A. in history from The American University, where he was the General Manager of the university's football team. He worked as a press box assistant with the Washington Redskins during and after his education.

Born June 17, 1955, Jeff and his wife, Cindy and his two children, Meredith (2) and Charlie (3) live in Kansas City, Missouri.

RICH McOSKER
Director of Information Systems

Rich McOsker begins his seventh year as the Chiefs Director of Information Systems. McOsker oversees the data processing staff and coordinates the club's information systems.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in July of '86, the 35-year-old McOsker served as Vice President of Data Processing for Guaranteed Foods, Inc. for six years. He was also a manager and programmer/analyst for the company. Prior to that he was a programmer at Industrial Bearing and Transmission ('78-79) and Swingster Wearables ('78).

A native of Wichita, Kansas, McOsker graduated from Kansas City, Kansas Community College in '78 with an A.A. in data processing. Rich and his wife, Cindy, live in Lenexa, Kansas, with their two sons, Adam (9) and David (6).

PHIL THOMAS
Director of Promotions

Phil Thomas is in his third season with the Chiefs as the club's Director of Promotions. Thomas oversees corporate sponsorships, local media promotions, corporate advertising and game atmosphere.

Thomas most recently was the owner of a local sports marketing company that was involved with the American Royal, BMA Holiday Basketball Tournament and PGA Seniors events. Prior to that he spent seven years with the MISL's Kansas City Comets, serving as the club's Vice President/General Manager his final three years there. Before getting into sports, he spent over four years as an account executive with the Independence Examiner.

A 41-year-old native of Chillicothe, Missouri, Thomas graduated from the University of Missouri in '74 with a journalism degree. Phil and his wife, Traci, reside in Kansas City, Missouri.

DENNIS WATLEY
Director of Sales & Marketing

Dennis Watley is in his third season with the Chiefs as Director of Sales and Marketing. He oversees all areas of sales (season and group), marketing, promotions, advertising and game day productions.

For 16 years prior to joining the Chiefs, the 44-year-old Watley was employed by National Steel Service Centers, a metals distribution company serving eight states in the Midwest. He left National Steel in '85 as President of the Midwest Division and joined D.W. Newcomers Sons in Kansas City as director of that firm.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Watley attended William Jewell College and UMKC on an athletic scholarship from '66-70, majoring in business and marketing.

Dennis lives in Lee's Summit, Missouri, with his wife, Carolyn, and their four children, Shelby (18), Lori (16), Matthew (8) and Ellen (9).

DALE YOUNG
Treasurer/Director of Finance

Dale Young enters his third year with the Chiefs as the club's Treasurer and Director of Finance. He is responsible for budget preparation, accounting, and the day-to-day management of the team's financial operations.

Before joining the Chiefs front office, the 37-year-old Young spent three years as Manager of Finance for Hunt Midwest Enterprises. From '83 through '87, he served as the Accounting Manager at Inter-College Press, Inc. He worked as an accountant and controller for several companies following his graduation with an accounting degree from Fort Hays Kansas State University in '76. He earned an M.B.A. in finance from Avila College in '82, and passed his C.P.A. exam in '89.

A native of Salina, Kansas, Dale and his wife, Allyson, reside in Olathe, Kansas, with their children, Michelle (12) and Brittany (7).

PHIL YOUTSEY
Director of Ticket Operations

Phil Youtsey, a Chiefs employee for 12 years, assumed the position of Director of Ticket Operations in '90. Youtsey supervises and directs all ticket operations for Chiefs games, special events and concerts at Arrowhead Stadium.

The 31-year-old Youtsey started with the Chiefs as a courier and assistant equipment manager from '80-83. In '83 he was the Director of Sales for Class A Gastonia (North Carolina) Expos of the South Atlantic Baseball League. From '84-86 he worked as a sales representative with the Chiefs, then served as ticket manager from '87-89.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Youtsey attended Oak Park High School, and graduated from William Jewell College with a business administration degree in '82. Phil and his wife, Jill, reside in Mission, Kansas, with their son, Matthew (3).

PUBLIC RELATIONS

BOB MOORE
Director of Public Relations

Bob Moore, who has 14 years experience as a sports publicist, begins his fourth season as the Chiefs Director of Public Relations. Moore is responsible for coordinating all of the club's public relations and community relations efforts.

The 44-year-old Moore joined the Chiefs after serving as Vice President of Marketing and Corporate Communications of The Patt Organization since '86. The Patt Organization is a Central Pennsylvania-based corporation responsible for the development of residential, recreational and commercial real estate in seven states.

From '82-86, Moore was the Director of Public Relations for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the United States Football League. Prior to that, he was Sports Information Director at both Drexel University ('79-82) and Saint Francis College ('76-78). He also served as Director of Media Information for the Gettysburg National Military Park ('78-79). Moore graduated from St. Francis in '69 with a B.A. in political science and history.

Born October 19, 1947, Bob is single and resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

JIM CARR
Assistant Director of Public Relations

Jim Carr begins his sixth season as the Chiefs Assistant Director of Public Relations. In addition to being a media liaison, the 29-year-old Carr is the primary writer and editor of all the club's publications, including the media guide, game program, releases and magazines.

After graduating from the University of Notre Dame in '85 with a bachelor's degree in American Studies, Carr joined the Milwaukee Bucks of the NBA as an intern and the only full-time assistant in the public relations department. He spent one year as a public relations assistant with the Chicago Bears prior to his arrival in Kansas City in July of '87.

DAVE KRIEG • 17
Quarterback Ht: 6-1 Wt: 192

How Acquired: Plan B Free Agent (1992)
College: Milton
NFL Experience: 13 (1st with Chiefs)
Birthdate: October 20, 1958
Birthplace: Iola, Wisconsin
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Pro Career: The 10th-highest-rated quarterback in NFL history joins the Chiefs after spending 12 extremely productive seasons with the Seattle Seahawks . . . Is very accurate passer and still has an exceptionally strong arm . . . Signed by Kansas City as a "Plan B" free agent on March 19, 1992 . . . Had been Seattle's primary starter at quarterback the past nine seasons ('83-91) . . . Has played in 129 career games, starting all but 10 of those . . . Has completed 2,096 of 3,576 passes (58.6%) for 26,132 yards with 195 touchdowns and just 148 interceptions . . . His career quarterback rating of 82.3 places him 10th in the league history, ahead of such luminaries as Bart Starr, Fran Tarkenton, Dan Fouts, Bernie Kosar, John Elway, Warren Moon and Jim Everett . . . Has been a three-time Pro Bowl participant (following '84, '88 and '89 seasons) . . . In '91, he became the 31st player in NFL history to pass for 25,000 career yards . . . Has passed for 3,000 yards four times ('84-85, '89-90) . . . In '84, he set Seahawks single-season record for passing yardage with 3,671 and touchdowns with 32 . . . Also owns Seattle career records for pass attempts, completions, completion percentage, yards, touchdowns, interceptions thrown, and passer rating . . . Holds single-game marks for pass attempts (51), completions (33), yards (418), completion percentage (86.4), touchdowns (five), 300-yard games (11) and 400-yard games (four) . . . Threw his 100th touchdown pass in his 65th game and only two quarterbacks have done it quicker (Dan Marino-44 & Johnny Unitas-53) . . . Is 70-49 as a starter during the regular season and 3-4 in the playoffs . . . Led Seattle to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in '83. 1991: Despite spending six weeks on injured reserve with a broken thumb, he finished the year as the AFC's fourth-ranked passer with a 82.5 rating . . . In 10 games (nine starts), he was accurate on 187 of 285 passes (65.5%) for 2,080 yards with 11 touchdowns and 12 interceptions . . . His 65.5 completion percentage led the NFL and set a Seattle record . . . Started the season opener at New Orleans (9/1) and completed 26-of-35 passes for 274 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions before suffering the thumb injury in the fourth quarter . . . Returned at Pittsburgh (10/20) to lead Seattle to a 27-7 win by completing 80.6% (25-31) of his passes, the second-best single-game accuracy mark in team history, with two touchdowns and no picks . . . Recorded his 11th 300-yard game at San Diego (11/10) with 379 yards. 1990: Was the only NFL quarterback to take every offensive snap and attempt every pass . . . Set new team records with his fourth 3,000-yard season and 10th 300-yard game . . . Kansas City fans most familiar recollection of him stems from a Nov. 11 Chiefs-Seahawks game at Arrowhead . . . On that day, Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas set an NFL record by sacking Krieg seven times . . . Krieg erased the impact of the turf-pounding by drilling a 25-yard pass to WR Paul Skansi as time expired, giving Seattle a 17-16 victory . . . He passed for 306 yards in the contest and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week . . . Led four fourth-quarter comebacks in '90: at New England (10/7), at Kansas City (11/11), at San Diego (11/25) and vs. Houston (12/2). 1989: Broke his team record for completions with 286, despite missing 1½ games . . . Did not play at N.Y. Giants (11/19) and played only the second half the following week at Denver (11/26) . . . Equalled Jim Zorn's team records with his third 3,000-yard season and ninth 300-yard game . . . Had 311 yards and threw the game-winning TD pass with :40 left against San Diego (10/29) . . . Played in the Pro Bowl as a injury replacement. 1988: Logged seven weeks on injured reserve with a shoulder separation; happened at San Diego (9/18) . . . Returned to start the last six games as Seahawks won their first AFC West title . . . Passed for 410 yards and four touchdowns in a 43-37 win over the Raiders (12/18) to clinch the division crown . . . Had five touchdown passes, an ABC Monday Night Football record, in the first Raiders game (11/28) . . . Had a team-record 94.6 quarterback rating, the second-highest in the NFL . . . Played in the Pro Bowl as a injury replacement. 1987: Started all 12 non-strike contests and was third in the conference with an 87.6 quarterback rating . . . Ranked second in the AFC with 23 touchdown passes . . . Guided Seattle into the playoffs for the third time in five seasons. 1986: Played in 15 games, starting 14 . . . Led a wild comeback in a 37-31 win at New England (9/21) as Seattle twice overcame 10-point fourth-quarter deficits, the final time on a 67-yard TD pass with 1:06 left . . . Returned from being benched to start the last five games and finished the season as the NFL's hottest quarterback . . . Completed 76 of 116 passes for 1,288 yards with 11 touchdowns and one interception in that stretch to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Month honors, as Seattle won all five games to finish at 10-6. 1985: Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season . . . Set new team records for attempts (532), tied for completions (285) and finished second to his own mark for touchdowns (27) . . . Finished fifth in the AFC with a 76.2 rating and was second in the NFL in touchdowns and third in yards . . . Set team single-game marks with 33 completions and 51 attempts against the Falcons (10/13), throwing for 405 yards and four scores . . . Had five touchdown passes at San Diego (9/15), as he threw for 307 yards in a 49-35 win . . . Had his streak of at least one TD pass in 28 games, the NFL's second-longest ever, snapped against the Patriots (11/17). 1984: Opened all 16 games, leading the Seahawks to their best ever record, 12-4, and into the playoffs for the second straight season . . . Named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . Ranked third in the AFC with an 83.3 quarterback rating and set club records for yards (3,671) and touchdowns (32) . . . The 32 scoring passes ranked as the seventh most in league history . . . Had five TD passes against the Lions (12/2) and at least two in nine games . . . Had more than 250 passing yards in eight games, with three over 300 . . . At Denver (11/25), he completed 30 of 44 passes for 406 yards and three touchdowns . . . Attempted a team-record 50 passes in the second Denver meeting (12/15), completing 30 for 334 yards. 1983: Did not see action the first seven weeks, but started the last eight games and led Seattle to their first ever playoff berth . . . Finished the season second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL with a team-record 95.0 QB rating . . . Threw for 2,139 yards and 18 touchdowns with 11 interceptions, completing a club-record 60.5% of his tosses . . . Threw for a Seattle-record 418 yards at Denver (11/20) . . . Had three consecutive games with three TD passes, including a 51-48 overtime win over the Chiefs (11/27) in which he twice rallied the Seahawks from 14-point second-half deficits . . . Completed 12 of 13 passes (92.3%) for 200 yards and three touchdowns in a 31-7 Wild Card win over the Broncos (12/24) . . . Was 15-of-28 for 192 yards with a touchdown and an interception in a 27-20 win at Miami (12/31) in the divisional playoffs . . . Directed a five-play, 66-yard drive to the winning touchdown . . . Played in the first half and one second-half series at L.A. Raiders (1/8/84) in the AFC Championship Game, completing three of nine passes for 12 yards with three interceptions. 1982: Named the starter at the end of the preseason and opened the first two games, but broke his thumb at Houston (9/19) . . . Did not see action again until the season finale against Denver (1/2/83), when he played the second half. 1981: Became the starter for the final three games after Zorn suffered a broken ankle . . . Won two of the three games . . . Was 20-of-26 passing for 264 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions in a 27-23 win over the Jets (12/6) in his first NFL start . . . Had three scoring passes in a 42-21 win over Cleveland (12/20). 1980: Played in one regular season game, the season finale at Denver (12/21), after injuries sidelined Zorn and backup Sam Adkins . . . Played four plays, attempting two passes while being sacked once . . . Made the roster after signing as a rookie free agent.

College/Personal: Was a four-year starter at now-defunct Milton College . . . MIKE LANSFORD • 1

Placekicker Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190

How Acquired: Free Agent (1992)
College: Washington
NFL Experience: 10 (1st with Chiefs)
Birthdate: July 20, 1958
Birthplace: Monterery Park, California
Residence: Yorba Linda, California

Pro Career: Joined Chiefs as a free agent on April 8, 1992 . . . Spent nine productive seasons with the Los Angeles Rams ('82-90) . . . Did not play in the NFL in '91 . . . During that stretch with the Rams, he was recognized as one of the best clutch field goal kickers in the game . . . Has seven career game-winning field goals . . . Holds Rams career records for points (789), field goals made (158), field goals attempted (217) and PATs made (315, tied with Bob Waterfield) . . . Also owns Rams records for longest field goal (52, twice) and most consecutive field goals made (13) . . . Career log reads 124 games, 158-217 FGs (72.8%), 315-325 PATs (96.9%), 789 points, four 100-point seasons and four 50-yard field goals (52 long). 1991: Signed by the Cleveland Browns as a "Plan B" free agent on April 1, but was waived after failing a physical the following day. 1990: Had a sub-par season, making 15 of 24 field goal tries, good for 62.5%, his lowest accuracy rate since '82 . . . Made 42 of 43 PAT attempts . . . Was second on the club in scoring with 87 points. 1989: Had two game winning field goals: kicked a 26-yarder with two seconds left to give the Rams a 13-12 victory over the 49ers (10/1) and booted a 31-yarder to beat the Saints, 20-17, in overtime (11/26) . . . Led the Rams in scoring with a career-high 120 points . . . Was 23 of 30 (76.7%) on field goal efforts and was perfect on 51 PAT tries. 1988: Scored 117 points, connecting on 24 of 32 field goals (75.0%) and 45 of 46 PATs . . . Surpassed Bob Waterfield as the Rams scoring leader with 582 points in Week 15 vs. Atlanta (12/11). 1987: Made 17 of 21 field goals (81.0%) and 36 of 38 PATs. 1986: Converted two game-winning field goals, an 18-yarder vs. San Francisco (9/14) and a 50-yarder at Chicago on Monday Night Football (11/3) . . . Made 17 of 24 field goals (70.8%) and 34 of 35 PATs. 1985: Kicked the two longest field goals in Rams history, both from 52 yards out (vs. Falcons, 9/29 & vs. Raiders, 12/23) . . . Made 22 of 29 field goals (75.9%) and 38 of 39 PATs. 1984: Set a club record by connecting on 13 straight field goals . . . Was 25 of 33 on field goal tries (75.8%) and 37 of 38 on PATs. 1983: Spent the first 11 weeks of the season on injured reserve following knee surgery . . . In the final game of the season, he drilled a 42-yard field goal with two seconds left, giving the Rams a 26-24 victory over the Saints (12/18) and a Wild Card Playoff berth. 1982: Signed by the Rams as a free agent during training camp and then beat out incumbent kicker Frank Corral . . . Finished his rookie season nine of 15 (60.0%) in field goals and 23 of 24 in PATs. 1981: Signed as a free agent by the Oakland Raiders in June and released on August 18. 1980: Was selected by the New York Giants in the 12th round (312th overall) of the '80 draft . . . Was released on August 3 and then claimed on waivers by the 49ers on August 5 . . . Was released by San Francisco on August 18.

College/Personal: Played two years at Washington, making 24 of 38 (63.2%) field goal attempts and all 71 of his PAT tries . . . Was a Junior College All-America selection at Pasadena (Cal.) Community College . . . Attended Arcadia (Cal.) High School, where he lettered in football and soccer . . . While with the Rams, he hosted five charity golf tournaments and established "Mike Lansford's Kick Out Cancer Foundation," donating $100 per field goal for cancer research . . . Full name: Michael John Lansford . . . Married, wife Teresa, two children, McCall (5) and Chase (1).

ALBERT LEWIS • 29

Cornerback Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3 - 1983)
College: Grambling
NFL Experience: 10
Birthdate: October 6, 1960
Birthplace: Mansfield, Louisiana
Residence: Overland Park, Kansas

Pro Career: Considered one of the finest cornerbacks in the NFL . . . So good, he's rarely tested by opposing quarterbacks . . . In a league by himself as a punt blocker, batting down an incredible 10 punts during his illustrious career . . . Has been voted to the Pro Bowl four times (following '87-90 seasons), the last three times as a starter . . . Has been the Chiefs primary starter at left cornerback the past eight years after spending most of his rookie season as a nickel back . . . As a defender, he has collected 31 interceptions, the sixth-most in franchise history . . . As a special teams performer, he has blocked 10 punts (including playoff action), deflected two punts and tackled one punter . . . Was named to the Chiefs 25-Year All-Time Team in '87 . . . Led all AFC interceptors with eight in '85 . . . Career totals are 127 games (107 starts), 472 tackles (381 solos), 31 interceptions, nine fumble recoveries and 4½ sacks . . . Before '91, he had missed just five non-strike games . . . Played right corner as a rookie, then switched to the left side in '84, when Gary Green was traded, and has resided there ever since. 1991: Is coming off injury-filled '91 season, when he missed eight regular season games and both playoff contests with a knee injury . . . Suffered the injury while pulling down his third interception in the season-opener vs. Atlanta (9/1) . . . Was hobbled by the injury the remainder of the year . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (1) for his three-pick afternoon . . . Finished the year with a career low 18 tackles 1990: Named to fourth straight Pro Bowl (third time in a row as a starter) . . . Was a consensus All-NFL pick . . . Had two interceptions and 13 pass deflections . . . Blocked what is believed to be an NFL-record four punts . . . NFL does not keep individual punt block records, but the old team record was five before the Chiefs got six last year and no single player had all five for his team . . . Had blocks in three straight games: Denver (9/17), Green Bay (9/23) and Cleveland (9/30) . . . Other block came against New England (12/2) . . . Cleveland block was returned by Kevin Ross for a touchdown . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (9) for interception, fumble recovery and two pass deflections in a key 9-7 win over L.A. Raiders (11/4) . . . Registered 58 tackles, his most since '86, and recorded a career-high three fumble recoveries . . . Moved into sixth place on Kansas City's all-time interception list. 1989: Had one of the best seasons of his distinguished pro career . . . Selected as a starter to the Pro Bowl for the second straight year . . . Was a first-team All-Pro pick by Associated Press, The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly and NEA . . . First-team All-AFC by UPI, Football News and Pro Football Weekly . . . Named the top AFC defensive back by the NFL Players' Association . . . Tied with fellow Pro Bowler Kevin Ross for team lead with four interceptions, his most since the '86 season . . . His 57 tackles were also the most since '86 . . . Also added three forced fumbles and one sack . . . Lead team in passes defensed for the fourth year in a row with 17 . . . Blocked sixth career punt vs. Oilers (11/26) which Jayice Pearson recovered for a TD in a 34-0 thrashing . . . Interceptions in '89 came off AFC's best quarterbacks: John Elway, Bernie Kosar and Dan Marino (twice) . . . Made his first interception of the season off Elway in season opener at Denver (9/10) and also added two stops then held Willie Gault without a reception the following week vs. Raiders (9/17) . . . Collected second pick of season on final play of overtime to preserve tie at Cleveland (11/19); also made season-high eight tackles (one for a loss) and had three pass deflections . . . Had third interception of season vs. Miami (12/3) . . . Had strong outing in Green Bay (12/10) with one sack, which forced a fumble, a pass deflection and two solo stops; helped limit Sterling Sharpe to one catch for five yards . . . Intercepted Marino and added three solo stops in season finale win over Miami (12/24) . . . Started all 16 games at left corner. 1988: Was voted to second straight Pro Bowl and first as a starter . . . Was first-team All-AFC by UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Football News and honorable mention All-NFL by AP . . . Led team in pass deflections for second straight year with 12 . . . Tied career low with one interception, getting the lone theft vs. Lions (10/23) . . . Played in 14 games with 12 starts; did not attend one game due to father's death and missed three starts with an ankle sprain . . . Also missed Pro Bowl with ankle injury . . . Contributed 45 tackles (32 solos), a fumble recovery and a blocked punt . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week vs. Bengals (11/13) after he blocked a punt for a safety, recovered a fumble to set up the game-winning field goal, deflected two passes and added four tackles . . . Block and fumble recovery took place in last 6:06 of game. 1987: Was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad for first time . . . Lone interception of season came on a fake punt in the season opener vs. San Diego (9/13) . . . Started all 12 non-strike contests at left cornerback, and finished the season with 43 tackles (34 solos), one fumble recovery and a team-high nine deflected passes . . . Helped Chiefs defeat Detroit on Thanksgiving Day (11/26)

with a team-leading eight tackles (seven solos) and a season-high three pass deflections . . . Deflected a punt at Chicago (11/1) which ended up traveling just 14 yards . . . Was a second-team All-AFC selection by UPI. 1986: Was equally sensational on defense and special teams . . . Voted the Chiefs Most Valuable Player for '86 by teammates . . . Defensively, he intercepted four passes, led unit in deflected passes and had two fumble recoveries . . . On special teams, he blocked or deflected a team-record four punts during the regular season and tackled another punter before the kick . . . Plus, he blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown in the playoff game vs. Jets (12/28) . . . Made a dramatic impact on several games, including the playoff-clinching win at Pittsburgh (12/21) in the finale, when he intercepted a pass to kill a late drive, recovered a fumble, and blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone for a touchdown . . . In Week 9 come-from-behind win at San Diego (11/2), he forced turnovers on three consecutive Charger possessions in the fourth-quarter comeback . . . That included two interceptions, which was the fourth multiple-interception game of his career, and a forced fumble . . . Recorded 69 tackles for the season, including 61 unassisted stops . . . Didn't play vs. Cleveland (10/12) due to a strained quad muscle which had bothered him for several weeks . . . Blocked punts came vs. San Diego (10/19), both Denver games (11/16 & 12/7) and Pittsburgh, and each one either set up a touchdown or was recovered for a TD. 1985: A torrid season-ending surge gave him a share of the AFC interception title with eight, tying Colts Eugene Daniel . . . Was one behind NFL leader Everson Walls of Dallas . . . Six of his thefts came in final three games of season . . . Began flurry by picking off three passes vs. Atlanta (12/8), a personal best and one shy of tying team and NFL standard . . . A week later he intercepted two passes at Denver (12/14), then finished the season with one vs. San Diego (12/22) . . . Also had one interception in each of the first two games of the season . . . Compiled 65 solo tackles to rank third on team and 74 total stops which tied him for sixth . . . Also had 1.5 sacks . . . Put together a masterful performance in a Thursday night game vs. Raiders (9/12), making a season-high eight solo tackles, one interception, one forced fumble, while recovering a Jim Plunkett fumble in the end zone for his first NFL touchdown and the Chiefs final score of a 36-20 win . . . Started all 16 games. 1984: Stepped forward as a leading performer on the Chiefs defense in his first year as a starter . . . Made four interceptions and recorded 66 tackles (60 solos) . . . His four thefts came in a five-week span . . . After starting the first 15 games, he missed the season finale after spraining his knee the previous week vs. Seattle (12/9). 1983: Spent most of his rookie year as the team's nickel back until winning the starting job in the season finale vs. Denver (12/18) . . . Made four interceptions and recorded 36 total tackles while playing in all 16 games . . . First NFL theft came off Jim Hart vs. St. Louis (10/2), then picked off two Plunkett passes in the first quarter the following week vs. the Raiders (10/9) . . . Final interception came at Seattle (11/27), which he returned a career-long 34 yards . . . On special teams, he contributed a team-leading 27 tackles and recovered a fumble on a punt return vs. Giants (10/16) that set up a Chiefs TD . . . Was the Chiefs third-round draft choice in '83.

College/Personal: Was a first-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference selection his final two years at Grambling . . . Intercepted 11 passes in those two seasons, including a SWAC-leading seven as a junior . . . Attended DeSoto High School in Mansfield, Louisiana, where he was a two-year all-district defensive back . . . Won three letters each in football, basketball and track . . . Earned a degree in political science from Grambling and plans to study law . . . Is very active in the Kansas City-area community . . . Has been a spokesman for the Johnson Co. Substance Abuse Program, Chiefs Crime Prevention and Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation and has worked with major-problem children at Genesis School, Missouri State Probation and Parole, and Rainbow Mental Health School . . . Also actively involved in YMCA, FCA, Muscular Dystrophy, Cerebral Palsy, United Way, Boy Scouts, March of Dimes and several other worthwhile endeavors . . . Hometown of Mansfield, Louisiana, held an "Albert Lewis Day" on May 11, 1990 . . . Hobbies include riding bikes, hunting and fishing . . . Full name: Albert Ray Lewis . . . Single.

NICK LOWERY • 8
Placekicker Ht: 6-4 Wt: 205

How Acquired: Free Agent (1980)
College: Dartmouth
NFL Experience: 13
Birthdate: May 27, 1956
Birthplace: Munich, Germany
Residence: Fairway, Kansas

Pro Career: Has proved to be one of the best placekickers in football history . . . Is the most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history with a 79.3% (284-358) . . . Owns or shares four NFL records and 17 Chiefs records . . . Is the 10th-leading scorer in pro football history . . . Owns the league record for most 100-point seasons (nine) . . . His career PAT% of 99.03% ranks third in NFL history behind Tommy Davis' 99.43% (348-350) and Gary Anderson's 99.38% (323-325) . . . He and Morten Andersen share the league mark for most career field goals of 50 yards or more with 18 . . . Also shares NFL record for most field goals of 50 yards or more in a game with two, but he is the only player to accomplish this feat more than two times (he's done it on three occasions) . . . Became the Chiefs leading scorer in '91 and is the outright owner of the following franchise records: points in a career (1,255) and season (139 in '90), 100-point seasons (nine), PATs in a career (403), most consecutive PATs made (197), career PAT% (99.02), field goals made in a career (284) and season (34 in '90), most consecutive field goals made (21), longest field goal (58), career FG% (79.6%) and season FG% (91.9% in '90), 50+ yards FGs in a career (18), season (four) and game (two) . . . Has been voted to two Pro Bowls, following the '81 and '90 seasons . . . Has played in 181 consecutive games, just five short of Jan Stenerud's team record . . . His 181 games played with the club ranks fourth behind the totals of Jerrel Wilson (203), Stenerud (186) and Len Dawson (182); tied with Buck Buchanan (181) . . . Has moved into sixth place on the NFL's career field goals made list with 284; the five ahead of him are Stenerud (373), George Blanda (335), Jim Turner (304), Pat Leahy (304) and Mark Moseley (300) . . . Has not slowed down, making 59 of 67 FGs (88.1%) in '90-91; the eight misses averaged 44.9 yards in length . . . Was the NFL's leading scorer in the '80s with 1,006 points . . . Lowery and Stenerud have been the Chiefs only two (non-strike) placekickers since the start of the '67 season . . . Lowery beat out Stenerud during the '80 preseason . . . Before landing in Kansas City, Lowery had been cut 11 times by eight different teams . . . In situations he has had an opportunity to give the Chiefs a win or a tie in the final two minutes of a regular season game, he has converted 10 of 13 times. 1991: Coming off another stellar campaign, making 25 of 30 (83.3%) field goal efforts and all 35 PAT tries . . . His five misses came from an average of 46.8 yards out, highest average in the AFC . . . Finished fourth in the AFC with 110 points, upping his league record for 100-point seasons to nine . . . His 83.3% ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL . . . Moved into sixth place on the NFL's career field goals made list, bypassing Lou Groza, Jim Bakken and Fred Cox . . . In '91, he moved ahead of Stenerud to become the team's all-time leading scorer, while also taking over the team lead in career field goals made and PATs made . . . Punched in an 18-yard field goal to give the Chiefs a 20-17 overtime win over the Chargers. 1990: Had one of the finest seasons of his distinguished NFL career . . . Selected to second Pro Bowl (also went in '81) and was a consensus All-NFL selection . . . Led the NFL and set new Chiefs records for points (139), field goals made (34), field goal percentage (91.89%) and consecutive field goals made (21) . . . His 91.89% (34-37) is the fourth-highest in NFL history, behind 20-out-of-21 seasons (95.24%) by Mark Moseley and Eddie Murray (twice) . . . Established an NFL-record with his eighth 100-point season . . . The 34 field goals made tied Jim Turner for the second-most ever in one season; Ali Haji-Sheikh owns the NFL record with 35 . . . Made 28 or 29 field goals inside of 40 yards . . . Made four of five fourth-quarter field goals . . . Misses came from 52 yards (short), 32 yards (wide right) and 41 yards (wide right) . . . Was 37 of 38 on PAT attempts, with the miss coming from 30 yards out in Chicago (12/29) after a holding penalty . . . In the Bears game, he made five-of five field goals for the third time in his career . . . Winner of Pro Football Weekly's annual "Golden Toe Award" . . . Named Kicker-of-the-Year by NFL Alumni . . . In playoff game at Miami (1/5/91), he made field goals of 27, 25, and 38 yards, then was about a yard short on a 52-yard try with 56 seconds left in the 17-16 Dolphins victory. 1989: Recorded his seventh 100-point season to tie Jan Stenerud's NFL record . . . Made 24 of 33 field goal tries for 72.7%, the seventh-highest percentage in the conference . . . Was 34 of 35 on PAT efforts . . . This lone PAT miss (vs. Miami, 12/3) broke a string of 197 in a row, which stands as a Chiefs record . . . Drilled 41-yarder with 1:31 remaining in the game at Miami (12/24), giving Kansas City a 27-24 season-ending victory . . . Had a disappointing game at Cleveland (11/19) when missed three opportunities to win the contest in a 10-10 tie; did hit a 41-yard boot at 3:48 of the fourth to make the score 10-10 . . . Became the 15th NFL player to score 1,000 points against San Diego (12/17) . . . Set NFL record with 18th 50+ yard field goal with a 50-yard kick at Pittsburgh (10/29). 1988: Had another outstanding season, putting through 27 of 32 field goal tries for 84.3%, the second-highest accuracy mark in team history (he had a 88.9% in '85) . . . Also made all 23 of his PAT efforts . . . Only Buffalo's Scott Norwood (86.5%, 32-37) and Detroit's Eddie Murray (95.2%, 20-21) had better FG% . . . Had three 50+ yard field goals, tying Stenerud's league record of 17 . . . Won back-to-back games with last-minute field goals, nailing a 39-yarder at :02 giving the Chiefs a 31-28 win over Cincinnati (11/13) and hitting a 40-yarder at :46 to give Kansas City a 27-24 victory over Seattle (11/20) . . . Was named to Sports Illustrated's first team All-NFL. 1987: Enjoyed one of the finest seasons of his career, making 19 of 23 field goal tries and establishing a new NFL record . . . His 82.6% FG accuracy rate was the third-highest in the NFL in '87 . . . He became the first kicker in NFL history to kick two 50-or-more yard field goals in three games when he booted 52- and 54-yarders in a Thanksgiving Day win over Detroit (11/26) . . . Only Atlanta's Mick Luckhurst has ever kicked two 50+ yarders on two occasions and 10 players have accomplished the feat once . . . Hit a 33-yard field goal with :00 left on the clock at Cincinnati (12/6) to send the game into overtime . . . Had just the fourth blocked field goal of his career vs. Chicago (11/1). 1986: Ranked fifth in the AFC with 100 points, but his 19 field goals and 26 attempts were career-lows for a 16-game season . . . Clutch performer kicked two game-winning field goals during the year: at San Diego (11/2) he nailed a 37-yarder with seven seconds left for a dramatic 24-23 comeback victory; at Buffalo (9/28) he nailed a 46-yard game-winner with 1:07 left to give the Chiefs a 20-17 win . . . Missed first-ever kick from less than 30 yards when a 29-yarder was blocked at San Diego (11/2) . . . Was named second team All-AFC by UPI and honorable mention All-Pro by AP. 1985: Broke his own record for single-season completion percentage by making 24 of 27 field goal attempts for a 88.9 percentage (now the second-highest) . . . It ranks as the sixth-best performance in NFL history . . . Remarkable season won him the honor as placekicker on the All-NFL team, thanks to first team votes from AP and NEA . . . Also was named to the All-AFC second team by UPI . . . Was voted as first alternate to the AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Made 22 of 23 attempts inside the 50-yard line . . . Kicked nine field goals (9-9) and scored 35 points in the first two games alone, the best two-game start in KC history . . . Was 4-4 in a season-opening 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), including two 52-yarders that tied an NFL record (which he matched in '80 and '87 as well) for most field goals over 50 yards in a game . . . Four nights later vs. Raiders (9/12), he produced one of the best performance of his career by making all five FG tries in a 36-20 win . . . The five field goals were a personal high, tied a team record set by Stenerud and were just one shy of the league record for most FG's in a game with no misses . . . He had a 58-yarder in the game which tied his personal best as the fourth-longest in NFL history. 1984: Connected on 23 of 33 field goal attempts and was selected as the second alternate for the Pro Bowl . . . His 23 FG's ranked third in the AFC and tied for eighth in the NFL, his 33 FGA's were most in the AFC and tied for fourth in the NFL and his 104 points ranked fourth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL . . . Kicked three fourth-quarter field goals vs. Denver (12/2), including a 42-yard game-winner with 1:56 remaining in a 16-13 victory. 1983: Set the team record for field goal completion percentage for the second straight season (which he broke again in '85 and '90) by making 24 of 30 attempts for 80.0% . . . Only misses were from 52, 51, 48, 47, 43 and 42 yards out . . . Set a then personal best with 116 points, good enough for second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL that year . . . Boomed a 58-yarder at Washington (9/18) for a team record and third-longest in NFL annals at that time . . . Later that year, he kicked a 54-yarder vs. the Raiders (11/6) . . . Booted a 41-yarder in OT to give Chiefs a 13-10 win over Houston (10/23). 1982: His statistics from the nine-game season almost seemed to reflect a normal 16-game slate . . . Broke the Chiefs field goal accuracy record for the first time by converting 19 of 24 attempts for 79.2%, bettering Stenerud's '69 mark of 77.1% . . . He led the AFC in field goals made for the second straight year with 19, which finished second in the NFL next to Moseley's 20 . . . His 74 points were second in the conference and third in the NFL . . . Made 19 of 21 attempts inside the 50-yard line and was perfect (11-11) inside the 40 . . . Earned second team AFC honors from UPI. 1981: Capped a brilliant '81 season by being voted as the placekicker for the AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Proceeded to win the game by kicking a 23-yard field goal with three seconds remaining . . . Connected on 26 of 36 attempts that year, including 25 of 29 inside the 50, while scoring 115 points . . . The 26 FG's were tops in the AFC and 115 points were good for second place . . . Selected to All-NFL team by NEA and named first team All-AFC by UPI. 1980: After beating out Stenerud, he quickly rebutted the skeptics with superb kicking . . . In the second game of the season vs. Seattle (9/14), he boomed a 57-yard field goal, which broke the club record of 55 yards set by Stenerud in '70 . . . Made good on 20 of 26 field goals, including 16 of 19 inside midfield . . . His four kicks of 50 yards or more tied for second in NFL history, one behind the all-time mark set by Denver's Fred Steinfort that year. Pre-Chiefs: Before winning a spot with the Chiefs, he tried unsuccessfully with eight other NFL teams . . . After not being drafted out of Dartmouth, he had a tryout with the N.Y. Jets in '78, but was cut during training camp . . . He then signed with New England during mid-season and appeared in two games, connecting on all seven PAT's and missing his only FG attempt before being released . . . Failed in tryouts with Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore, New Orleans, Tampa Bay and San Diego in '79.

DAVID LUTZ • 72

Tackle Ht: 6-6 Wt: 305

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2 - 1983)
College: Georgia Tech
NFL Experience: 10
Birthdate: December 30, 1959
Birthplace: Monroe, North Carolina
Residence: Eatonton, Georgia

Pro Career: Has provided stability along the Chiefs offensive line for the past nine years . . . Is a powerful run blocker . . . Spent his first six years in Kansas City as an offensive tackle, starting 60 of 75 games at that position from '83-88 . . . Made the move from right tackle to right guard in '89 and has started 47 of the last 48 games there . . . Had not played guard in college or in the pros before the move . . . In his three seasons as the club's starting right guard, the offensive line has paved the way for three 1,000-yard rushers (Christian Okoye twice and Barry Word once) . . . In '90-91, the Chiefs allowed just 43 sacks, the third-fewest in the NFL . . . Has started 107 of 123 games since joining the Chiefs as a second-round (34th overall) draft choice in '83. 1991: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in his career . . . Also opened both playoff contests . . . Helped Chiefs average 138.6 yards per game on the ground, the third-loftiest output in the AFC and NFL . . . Played a key role protecting the club's quarterbacks as the team allowed just 21 sacks, the fewest in the conference and third-fewest in the league. 1990: Played in all 16 games, starting 15 games at right guard . . . Missed one start when Chiefs were trying different line combinations . . . Also opened the Miami playoff game at right guard . . . Played major role on Chiefs line that saw two runners gain 800+ yards (Word had 1,015 and Okoye had 805) and permitted a mere 22 sacks, the fourth-fewest in the league. 1989: Had one of his best pro seasons at right guard after playing right tackle for almost all of his football career . . . The move played big dividends as the Chiefs offensive line helped Christian Okoye to the NFL's rushing crown and allowed just 23 sacks, the third-fewest in the league . . . Started all 16 games at right guard . . . Marked the third time in his NFL career that he has started all 16 games in a season. 1988: Played in 15 games, missing one (vs. Chargers, 9/25) with back spasms . . . Started seven times, the lowest number since '84 when he made six . . . Opened the first two games of the season at right tackle . . . Started twice during mid-season at right guard when Mark Adickes and Byron Ingram were both injured . . . It marked the first time in his professional career he played guard . . . Shared the right tackle position with Irv Eatman in '87 . . . Played as a backup in the season opener, then replaced Eatman as the club's starter in the next four non-strike contests . . . Was relegated to backup role the following four weeks until left tackle John Alt suffered a season-ending knee injury . . . After Alt's injury, Eatman moved to the left side and Lutz started the final three games on the right. 1986: Missed seven games at mid-season after sustaining a strained right knee in a Week 5 game vs. the Raiders (10/5) . . . It was the second injury of his career . . . Came back vs. Buffalo (11/30) at Arrowhead and started the final three games . . . Played in nine games and started eight. 1985: Played more downs than any other offensive lineman while starting all 16 games at right tackle . . . His only missed action was the final three quarters of a Week 5 game vs. the Raiders (10/6) due to a bruised calf . . . Was one of just three offensive players to start every game in '85 . . . Was a stabilizing force in a line that saw the same group never start more than three games in a row due to various injuries. 1984: Missed the first half of the season after suffering ligament damage in his right knee in the season opener at Pittsburgh (9/2) . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery and spent nine weeks on the injured reserve list . . . Returned to action Week 11 vs. Houston (11/11), then started the final five games . . . Played in seven games with six starts . . . Selected by his teammates as the Chiefs nominee for the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award for '84 in recognition of personal courage exemplified in pursuit of professional excellence on the football field. 1983: Stepped into starting lineup at right tackle during the preseason and went on to become Kansas City's only offensive lineman to start all 16 games that year . . . Was chosen by his veteran teammates as the '83 winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, an annual award given to the outstanding Chiefs rookie . . . Also was named to the '83 NFL All-Rookie Team by Football Digest . . . Became the first Chiefs rookie to start the season-opening game since DE Art Still and DE Sylvester Hicks in '78 . . . Beat out 10-year veteran Charlie Getty, who was traded to the Green Bay Packers, for the right tackle job.

College/Personal: Was a four-year starter at Georgia Tech, which used a pro-style offense . . . Started 44 consecutive games after being redshirted in '78 . . . Didn't miss an offensive snap his final two seasons . . . Earned honorable mention All-America recognition from AP as a senior and from The Sporting News his final two years . . . CHRISTIAN OKOYE • 35

Running Back Ht: 6-1 Wt: 260

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2 - 1987)
College: Azusa Pacific
NFL Experience: 6
Birthdate: August 16, 1961
Birthplace: Enugu, Nigeria
Residence: Claremont, California

Pro Career: Devastatingly powerful and exceptionally fast running back will undoubtedly become the Chiefs all-time leading rusher in '92 . . . Is just three yards shy of the Chiefs career rushing record . . . Enters '92 with 4,449 career rushing yards, which is just behind the 4,451 yards of Ed Podolak ('67-77) . . . Has led the club in rushing four of his five seasons . . . Is only Kansas City back to ever record two 1,000-yard rushing seasons . . . Combines sprinter's speed with a lineman's strength . . . His 1,102 career rushing attempts rank second in club history to Podolak's 1,158 . . . He and Podolak each have 34 career rushing touchdowns, just five behind Abner Haynes' team record of 39 . . . Has been voted to the Pro Bowl twice, following the '89 and '91 seasons . . . Rushed for 1,000 yards in each of those campaigns . . . Set a team record with 1,480 rushing yards in '89 and led team with 1,031 in '91 . . . His 14 career 100-yard rushing games are a Chiefs record . . . Nine of those games have come at Arrowhead . . . Also holds franchise records for rushing attempts in a season (370), rushing attempts in a game (38), 100-yard games in a season (eight) and most consecutive 100-yard games (three) . . . Only Detroit's Barry Sanders (43) has more rushing touchdowns than Okoye (28) from '89-91 . . . Has flourished under head coach Marty Schottenheimer . . . In '89-91 with Schottenheimer, he has pounded out 3,316 yards and 28 TDs, while in '87-88, he rushed for 1,133 yards and six scores . . . Is the only Chief to ever lead the NFL in rushing ('89) . . . His success in the NFL is remarkable considering the fact he never played American football until '84 and saw the game for the first time a year earlier . . . A native of Enugu, Nigeria, he first played football at tiny Azusa Pacific University in Azusa, California . . . Has 41 career catches for 289 yards . . . Has made just nine catches the past three years and 17 the past four; he hauled in 24 passes as a rookie . . . Sure-handed ball carrier has fumbled just 25 times on 1,143 attempts, a superb average of just one mishandle every 45.7 chances; that compares favorably to some NFL greats: Jim Brown (1 every 46.7), Thurman Thomas (46.4), Eric Dickerson (39.6), Tony Dorsett (37.1), Franco Harris (36.3) and Gale Sayers (36.4). 1991: Became the first Chief to record two 1,000-yard rushing seasons with 1,031 in '91 . . . Earned second trip to the Pro Bowl (but missed game with a knee injury) . . . Named second team All-NFL by NEA and first team All-AFC by Pro Football Weekly and Football News . . . Finished third in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in rushing . . . His nine rushing touchdowns ranked second in the conference and tied for seventh in the league . . . Has lead the team in touchdowns three years in a row . . . Ranked 10th in the AFC with 1,065 total yards from scrimmage . . . Missed 2½ games with a sprained knee . . . Started 12 of the 14 games he played in . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month in October: 84 carries, 372 yards and five touchdowns with back-to-back century efforts vs. Buffalo, 10/7 (29-122-2) and Miami, 10/13 (23-152-2) . . . Other '91 100-yard game, giving him a Chiefs record 14, was a 143-yard outburst in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/1) . . . Had a 48-yard run in the Falcons win, his longest since '89 . . . Rushed for 96 yards at L.A. Rams (11/10), 83 vs. Denver (11/17), 79 vs. Seattle (9/22) and 75 at Houston (9/16) . . . Averaged 73.6 yards per game and a career-high 4.6 yards per carry . . . His 1,031 yards are fifth-most ever by a Chief in a single-season . . . His 225 carries in '91 also rank fifth in club history . . . Was inactive with a knee injury for late games vs. San Diego (12/8) and San Francisco (12/14) . . . Knee limited his playoff activity: one carry for two yards vs. L.A. Raiders (12/28) and no carries at Buffalo (1/5/92). 1990: Finished fourth NFL season with 805 rushing yards to rank ninth in the AFC . . . His seven touchdowns led the team for the second straight year . . . Started the first 13 games of the season, then suffered a shoulder subluxation, causing him to miss the next two games . . . Played but did not start in season finale and Miami playoff game . . . Suffered shoulder injury vs. Denver (12/9) . . . Had one century effort, registering 122 yards on 23 carries with one touchdown at Green Bay (9/23) . . . Had four other games with at least 80 rushing yards, including 83 yards on 13 carries in first-round playoff loss to Miami (1/5/91) . . . In the Chiefs final drive in that game, he had a 26-yard gallop and then a 12-yard run that took the team to the Miami 14-yard line, but was nullified by a holding penalty; Chiefs ended up kicking a 52-yard field goal (from the Miami 34) which fell short in 17-16 loss . . . Had 92 yards and a score on 28 totes vs. Minnesota (9/9) and 91 yards and two touchdowns on 21 carries vs. Detroit (10/14). 1989: Consensus All-Pro choice led NFL and set new Chiefs single-season record with 1,480 rushing yards; edged out Lions Barry Sanders (1,470) for NFL crown . . . Selected to start first Pro Bowl . . . Named Chiefs Most Valuable Player by his teammates . . . Selected AFC Player of the Year by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club and by the NFL Players' Association . . . Was a first team All-Pro selection by AP, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and NEA . . . Was a first team All-AFC pick by UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Football News . . . Named Running Back of the Year by the NFL Alumni . . . Broke or tied seven Chiefs records . . . Topped league and set club record for rushing attempts in a season with 370 (old Chiefs record was 236 by Mike Garrett in '67) . . . His 370 carries are the 12th-most ever by an NFL back in an season . . . Became first Chiefs 1,000-yard rusher since Joe Delaney in '81 . . . His 12 rushing touchdowns are the second-most in team history to Abner Haynes' 13 . . . Before '89 season Woody Green owned team record for carries in a game with 30, but Okoye had five games with at least 30 carries last season, including team-record 38 at Green Bay (12/10) . . . Tied Delaney's team record with three straight 100-yard games on two occasions in '89 . . . His '89 numbers are especially impressive considering he missed all of preseason with a pinched nerve in his neck and saw extensive action in just 14 games; carried only five times in season opener at Denver (9/10) and was sidelined at home vs. Denver (11/12) with a thigh bruise . . . Had first 100-yard effort of season at San Diego (9/24) with 112 yards (then a career high) on 16 carries . . . Broke off a career-long 59-yard run in the game . . . Became the first Chief to have back-to-back century games since '81 (Delaney) with 101 yards on 25 totes in loss to Cincinnati (10/1) . . . Enjoyed one of the finest games of his career as he helped Chiefs win for the first time in Seattle (10/8) since '81 with then-career-bests of 156 yards on 30 carries . . . Had an incredible 13-yard touchdown run in which he bulled his way over and past seven would-be tacklers . . . His three straight 100-yard games tied Delaney's '81 team standard . . . Had best outing of pro career with a then-team-record 33 carries for a personal-best 170 yards and two touchdowns vs. Dallas (10/22) . . . His 170 yards are the fourth-most ever by a Kansas City back . . . Had fifth 100-yard outing of the year at Pittsburgh

(10/29) with 101 yards on 34 carries . . . Had his team-record sixth 100-yard game in seven weeks with 126 yards on a new-team-record 37 carries vs. Seattle (11/5) . . . Became the fifth Chiefs player (first since '81) to rush for 1,000 yards in a season in 34-0 win over Oilers (11/26) . . . Had 67 yards on 21 carries and a 17-yard touchdown run in the shutout . . . Broke Delaney's team record for rushing yardage in a season (1,121 in '81) in victory over Miami (12/3) . . . Powered his way to 148 yards on 32 carries . . . Broke his own team record by rushing 38 times at Green Bay (12/10) for 131 yards in a big Chiefs victory. 1988: Battled injuries in second NFL season, played in just nine games . . . Still finished year as team's leading rusher with 473 yards and three touchdowns . . . Started season with a four-game stay on injured reserve with a broken right thumb; suffered injury in preseason opener and underwent surgery on it August 7 . . . Saw first action of season at N.Y. Jets (10/2), recording 51 yards on 12 totes . . . Injured back in that outing and did not play the following week at Houston (10/9) . . . Started the next eight weeks and really came on from Game 11 to Game 14 . . . In that four-game stretch he galloped for 280 yards and three scores while averaging 4.8 yards per run . . . Had second career 100-yard day with 102 yards vs. Cincinnati (11/13); also had a touchdown and a then-career-long 48-yard run in the contest . . . Broke his right hand escorting James Saxon into the end zone on game-winning touchdown vs. N.Y. Jets (12/4) . . . Missed final two games and was placed on injured reserve for second time on December 14. 1987: Stepped in as club's starting fullback on first day of training camp and by season's end led all NFL rookie runners with 660 yards . . . Carried the ball 157 times and scored three rushing touchdowns . . . Was also Kansas City's third-leading receiver (first among RB's) with 24 catches for 169 yards . . . Was voted team's Mack Lee Hill Award, which annually goes to the Chiefs top rookie, and was named to the Pro Football Writers' all-rookie team . . . Had a sensational NFL debut by rushing for 105 yards on 21 carries in the season opener vs. San Diego (9/13), marking the first time a Chiefs rookie gained 100 yards in his first NFL game . . . Also broke off a 43-yard touchdown run in the opener, his longest run of the year . . . Ran for 93 yards, including 83 in the first half, at Chicago (11/1), the best rushing day against the Bears in '87 . . . Had best receiving day of career at San Diego (10/25) when he caught four passes for 45 yards, including a career-long 22-yarder . . . Played with a painful shoulder injury most of his rookie campaign . . . Fumbled just five times in 157 carries, a ratio of on every 31.4 carries . . . Chiefs traded up 11 spots in the '87 draft's second round, swapping second-round positions and giving the Oilers a fourth-round pick, to take him (Oilers used second-round pick on LB Walter Johnson and fourth-rounder on LB Mark Dusbabek) . . . Was eighth running back selected in '87 behind Alonzo Highsmith, Brent Fullwood, D.J. Dozier, Paul Palmer, Roger Vick, Terrence Flagler and Kenny Flowers.

College/Personal: A Nigerian-born athlete who came to the United States in the fall of '82 to compete for Azusa Pacific's national championship track and field program . . . Went to school at Azusa Pacific on advise from a friend and sprinter from Enugu, Innocent Egbunike . . . Chose to play football when he wasn't selected for the Nigerian Olympic team in '84 . . . STEPHONE PAIGE • 83
Wide Receiver Ht: 6-2 Wt: 188

How Acquired: Free Agent (1983)
College: Fresno State
NFL Experience: 10
Birthdate: October 15, 1961
Birthplace: Slidell, Louisiana
Residence: Fresno, California

Pro Career: Chiefs fourth all-time leading receiver hopes to rebound from knee injury that kept him out of 13 games last year . . . Has a chance to become the Chiefs all-time leader in receptions (39 shy), receiving yards (965 shy) and receiving touchdowns (eight shy) . . . His 377 reception total trails only those of Henry Marshall (416), Otis Taylor (410) and Chris Burford (391) . . . His 6,341 yards are just under the totals of Taylor (7,306), Marshall (6,545) and Carlos Carson (6,360) . . . He ranks third in career receiving touchdowns with 49, just behind Taylor (57) and Burford (55) . . . Trademark has been the spectacular, often acrobatic, catch . . . Also excels as a downfield blocker . . . Has gone from being an undrafted rookie to one of the league's premier wide receivers . . . Had never missed an NFL game with an injury before '91 . . . Heads into '92 with a team-record string of 83 straight games with a pass reception . . . Owns first- and third-loftiest receiving-yardage days in club history: had a then NFL-record 309 yards vs. San Diego (12/22/85) and collected 206 yards at Denver (9/17/90) . . . In '89 his NFL receiving yardage mark was eclipsed by L.A. Rams WR Willie "Flipper" Anderson, who had 336 yards in an overtime win over New Orleans (11/26) . . . His average gain of 16.8 yards per reception is the third-highest in franchise history . . . Has been a starting wide receiver for the Chiefs since '86 . . . His 21 touchdowns from '85-86 were more than any other NFL player in that time frame . . . Has seven double-touchdown games to his credit and 12 career 100-yard outings (including playoffs). 1991: Played in just three games because of a knee injury suffered vs. New Orleans (9/8) . . . Was inactive for two games and on injured reserve for the final 11 regular season games plus the playoffs . . . Had never missed an NFL game due to injury before '91 . . . Had nine catches for 111 yards for the year . . . Made six grabs for 79 yards in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/1) . . . Then made one catch for 10 yards against the Saints and two for 22 yards at San Diego (9/29) . . . Was placed on IR on Oct. 4. 1990: Enjoyed his most productive NFL season, leading team with 65 receptions for 1,021 yards and five touchdowns . . . Became third Chief to hit the 1,000-yard plateau, joining Carson (did it three times) and Taylor (did it twice) . . . Both his reception and yardage totals set personal single-season highs . . . Yardage total ranked second in AFC (to Houston's Haywood Jeffires – 1,048) and eighth in NFL . . . His receptions total ranked eighth in the conference . . . Had second-best day of career on Monday night in 24-23 loss at Denver (9/17) with a career-high 206 yards and two touchdowns . . . With Chiefs down 21-9 in fourth quarter, he caught touchdown passes of 16 and 83 yards to put Chiefs up 23-21 . . . The 83-yarder came with just 1:44 left in the game, but Denver won game on a field goal as time expired . . . Had seven catches for 151 yards, including a career-long 86-yard grab in 37-7 rout at New England (12/2) . . . The 86- and 83-yard receptions are the two longest of his career, and are the seventh- and 10th longest in Chiefs history . . . Had exceptional playoff performance at Miami (1/5/91) with eight catches for 142 yards with a 26-yard touchdown . . . Had three other games with at least 75 receiving yards. 1989: Despite missing two games plus two more starts because of a late signing, he returned as the Chiefs top receiver with 44 grabs for 759 yards and two touchdowns . . . Reached both the 300-catch and 5,000-receiving yardage plateaus in '89 . . . Got off to a slow start in new Chiefs offense, but came on strong by season's end . . . His 44 receptions and 759 yards were his second-lowest totals since '84 and his two touchdowns are his lowest ever . . . Had 36 catches for 625 yards and two scores with three 100-yard games in last nine games of the season . . . Recorded 163 yards (on seven catches) at Pittsburgh (10/29) and 133 (on seven catches with a TD) vs. Miami (12/3) . . . Other century effort came against Houston (11/26) when he had seven grabs for 114 yards . . . The two missed games to start the season represented the only missed action of his career. 1988: Had one of the most active season of his pro career, leading the Chiefs with 61 catches for 902 yards and seven touchdowns in '88 . . . Finished seventh in the AFC in receptions and eighth in receiving yardage . . . His 61 receptions set a career high and his 902 yards represent his third-highest total ever . . . Broke Podolak's record of 44 straight games with a catch vs. Cincinnati (11/13), making four grabs for 71 yards and one touchdown . . . Broke the 4,000-yard receiving mark at Denver (11/6) . . . Had two 100-yard efforts in '88 . . . Caught five passes for 106 yards vs. Seattle (11/20) and made four catches for 113 yards and two touchdowns in win over the Jets (12/4) . . . Tied career high with nine catches at Seattle (9/11); recorded 99 yards and a touchdown in the game . . . Was only Chiefs offensive player to start all 16 games. 1987: Finished second on team with 43 catches, 707 yards and four touchdowns . . . The four TD's made him the club's third-leading scorer in '87 but tied a personal low . . . Had two 100-yard outings in '87 . . . Caught five passes for 121 yards, including a 43-yard TD pass from Bill Kenney on a flea flicker, at Chicago (11/1) . . . Also had a season-long 51-yard reception in the game . . . Finished the year with an eight-catch, 110-yard, one-TD performance vs. Seattle (12/27) . . . Had three other games over 75 yards . . . Injured his right foot vs. Raiders (12/13) and missed most of the game but returned the following week . . . Played in 12 games with 11 starts. 1986: Was his first year as a full-time starter and he finished as the team's leading receiver with a then career-most 52 receptions for 829 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns . . . His 11 TD's tied Otis Taylor for the second-most in Chiefs history, one shy of Chris Burford's record 12 in '62 . . . Tied Mark Duper for third in NFL touchdown receptions behind Jerry Rice (15) and Wesley Walker (12) . . . Caught at least one TD pass in eight of the final 11 games, including two double-TD games (San Diego, 10/19 and St. Louis, 11/23) . . . Caught a career-most nine passes vs. Buffalo (11/30) and recorded the team's only 100-yard receiving performance of the season with 119 yards . . . Longest catch was a 51-yarder at Buffalo (9/28). 1985: Put his name along side some legends of the game by recording what was then the best receiving day in NFL history in the season finale with an amazing 309 yards on eight receptions at Arrowhead vs. the Chargers (12/22) . . . Record was broken in '89 by Rams Flipper Anderson . . . The old record of 303 yards had been set by Jim Benton of the Cleveland Rams in '45 . . . Surpassed the Chiefs record of 213 yards (Curtis McClinton, '65) in the second quarter and had 258 yards by halftime . . . Had first-half catches of 56 (TD), 51, 30, 17, 84 (TD, career high, KC's 6th-longest ever) and 20, along with second-half catches of 39 and the record-breaking 12-yarder . . . Thanks to his season-ending record total, he finished the year as the Chiefs leader in receiving yardage with 943 (ninth in AFC and 15th in NFL) and second in receptions with 43 (Carson had 47) . . . His 21.9-yard average per catch ranked first in the NFL among qualifying receivers . . . His 10 touchdown receptions were third-most in KC history . . . Played in all 16 games and started eight when injuries sidelined either Carson or Marshall. 1984: Matched his rookie season total of 30 receptions and upped his receiving yardage to 541 . . . Top yardage game again came in the season finale vs. San Diego (12/16), 84 yards on just two catches, one being a 65-yard TD grab that was the Chiefs longest reception of the year . . . Caught at least one pass in all but one game and that was at Denver (9/23) when he caught two passes that were ruled out of the end zone . . . Made his first NFL start in a Week 14 win over Denver (12/2) when the Chiefs opened in a three-wide receiver set . . . Also served as the primary kickoff return man in '84, compiling a 20.1 average on a team-high 27 returns. 1983: Posted one of the top rookie performances in the NFL in '83 . . . Saw limited action early in the season but came on strong in the second half and finished with 30 receptions for 528 yards, a team-leading 17.8 average, and six touchdowns . . . Only two other rookie wide receivers caught more passes that year — Chicago's Willie Gault and Detroit's Jeff Chadwick both had 40 . . . The 30 catches were the most by a Chiefs rookie WR since Burford's 46 in '60 . . . His first NFL reception came the fifth week vs. St. Louis (10/2), then he quickly came into his own . . . Finished the season strongly, making 17 receptions for 326 yards and five TD's in the final five games . . . Top game was at San Diego (12/11), when he caught five passes for 84 yards and two TD's . . . Made Chiefs squad as a rookie free agent.

College/Personal: Despite a productive two-year collegiate career at Fresno State, he was overshadowed by WR Henry Ellard, who was drafted in the second round by the Rams in '83 . . . Transferred from Saddleback (Cal.) Junior College, where he spent his first two years . . . Attended Long Beach (Cal.) Poly High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball . . . His high school has produced Tony Hill, Gene Washington, Mark Carrier and Carl Weathers (Rocky's Apollo Creed) . . . Majored in radio-television at Fresno State . . . Enjoys reading and working outdoors . . . Has done charity work for NAACP, UCP, Victory Fellowship and FCA . . . Full name: Stephone Paige . . . Married, wife Paula, three children, Stephone II (6), E'Lon (5) and Brifon (2).

How Acquired: Free Agent (1986)
College: Washington
NFL Experience: 7
Birthdate: August 17, 1963
Birthplace: Japan
Residence: Lee's Summit, Missouri

Pro Career: Never was his significance more evident than the '91 season, in which he started 12 of the 15 games he played . . . Has been a valuable contributor to the Chiefs secondary and special teams since joining the club in '86 . . . Has been the Chiefs nickelback and top backup for Pro Bowl cornerbacks Albert Lewis and Kevin Ross the past five-and-a-half seasons . . . One of the physically toughest players on the club . . . Has played in 83 of the past 84 games despite injuries and has made 28 starts at cornerback the past five years . . . Career log reads 82 games (28 starts), 198 tackles (141 solos), six interceptions, three sacks, one fumble recovery and one touchdown. 1991: Turned in a gutty performance in '91, starting a career-high 12 games as starters Lewis (eight) and Ross (two) missed a total of 10 games . . . Played both right and left cornerback as well as nickelback . . . Easily had his finest season, recording career highs with three interceptions and 69 tackles; also had a team-leading 16 pass deflections, a sack, a forced fumble and three quarterback pressures . . . Finished the season strong after Lewis was placed on IR, recording 21 tackles, a sack and five pass deflections in the last three games . . . Made interceptions against the Raiders (10/28), Browns (11/24) and Chargers (12/8) . . . Returned the Raiders interception 43 yards, setting up the Chiefs first touchdown in a thrilling 24-21 come-from-behind win . . . Missed Houston game (9/16) with an injured toe . . . Played the rest of the season with painful toe and foot injuries. 1990: Played in all 16 games for the third years in a row . . . Made five starts: two for absent Lewis, one for injured Ross and two when Chiefs used four defensive backs against run-and-shoot offenses . . . Recorded 25 tackles, one interception and one fumble recovery . . . Interception came off Jack Trudeau at Indianapolis (10/7) . . . Added 12 special teams coverage tackles. 1989: Made 30 tackles (21 solos) and one sack in 16 games, including three starts for an injured Kevin Ross . . . Scored first NFL touchdown on a one-yard blocked punt return vs. Houston (11/26); punt was rejected by Albert Lewis . . . Had seven pass deflections, the third-highest total on the team . . . Made eight solo stops on special teams. 1988: Made a career-high six starts in '88, replacing Ross twice at right corner and Lewis four times at left corner . . . Picked off the first two passes of his NFL career, while his 30 tackles marked a personal high and his nine deflections were second only to Lewis' 12 . . . Made first career interception off Brent Pease in Houston (10/9) . . . Recorded season-high seven tackles (six solos) vs. Bengals (11/13) in a starting role . . . Made second intereception of season against the Seahawks (11/20). 1987: The Chiefs primary backup at cornerback played in all 12 non-strike games, including a pair of starting calls . . . Made his first NFL start vs. Pittsburgh (11/8) when Kevin Ross was injured and finished the game with a personal-high nine tackles, including eight solo stops, while also deflecting two passes . . . Started in a Thanksgiving Day win at Detroit (11/26) when Ross was injured and contributed five tackles (four solos) and two deflections . . . Had 29 tackles (23 solos) on the year . . . Finished second on the team in pass deflections with eight (Lewis led with nine) . . . Was the club's fourth-leading special teams stopper with 14 tackles (nine solos). 1986: Was added to the roster prior to the second San Diego game (11/2) after being on injured reserve since the first preseason game . . . Played in the final eight games and finished with 11 tackles (10 solos) and one sack . . . Signed with the Chiefs as a first-year free agent during the off-season and impressed Chiefs coaches in training camp, but suffered a severe ankle sprain in the first preseason game vs. Cincinnati and was put on IR . . . Cleared procedural waivers Oct. 31 and was re-signed by the team, replacing the injured Mark Robinson . . . Was a late cut by the Washington Redskins in '85 as a rookie free agent.

College/Personal: Played at three different colleges, spending his final two seasons at Washington . . . Intercepted five passes in those two years with the Huskies . . . Began collegiate career at Cal Poly Pomona, then attended Fullerton (Cal.) Junior College before transferring to Washington . . . Attended El Camino High School in Oceanside, Cal. . . . Earned criminal justice degree from Washington . . . Enjoys playing basketball and reading about current affairs . . . Full name: Jayice Pearson . . . Married, wife Wendy.

KEVIN ROSS • 31

Cornerback Ht: 5-9 Wt: 182

How Acquired: Draft (No. 7 - 1984)
College: Temple
NFL Experience: 9
Birthdate: January 16, 1962
Birthplace: Camden, New Jersey
Residence: Mickleton, New Jersey

Pro Career: Regarded as one of the finest all-round cornerbacks in the NFL . . . Equally impressive as a pass defender and run stuffer . . . Ventured to the Pro Bowl following the '89 and '90 seasons, and was a first alternate in '91 . . . Extremely aggressive, all-giving performer has been Kansas City's starting right cornerback since his first NFL game, despite arriving as a seventh-round pick and 173rd overall selection in '84 draft . . . Tough, hard-hitting defender has been exceedingly productive in his eight previous seasons, both on defense and special teams . . . Has 27 career interceptions, tying him with Hall of Famer Willie Lanier for seventh place on the Chiefs all-time list . . . Very important run support player who averages 83.3 tackles per season, an incredible number for a cornerback . . . Has made 666 tackles in career and only Deron Cherry (807) has made more for the Chiefs the past eight seasons . . . Has made at least 60 tackles in all seven non-strike seasons and has produced at least 90 stops on four occasions . . . Has been the Chiefs interception leader once ('90) and tied for the interception lead twice ('87 and '89) . . . Has four games with two interceptions . . . Big-play producer has scored four touchdowns in four different ways: interception return, fumble recovery, blocked field goal runback and blocked punt return . . . Has missed just five games in his eight-year career, starting 113 of his 120 appearances . . . His ferocious hits have become a trademark – possibly the hardest hitter for his size in the league – and although just 5-9 he owns speed to make him a top cover man . . . Former high school wrestler uses leverage to gain advantage on larger ball carriers . . . In addition to 666 tackles and 27 picks, he has also produced nine fumble recoveries and two sacks . . . Has 19 tackles in four playoff games (all starts). 1991: Was a first alternate for the Pro Bowl after representing the AFC in in '89-90 . . . Was hampered by a sprained ankle during the middle of the season, but still played in 14 games with 13 starts . . . His 68 total tackles ranked ninth on the team, while 54 solo stops placed him fifth on the squad . . . Recorded lone interception of the season at Cleveland (11/24) . . . Was rarely tested by opposing quarterbacks in '91 . . . Had at least four tackles in 12 of 13 starts and made at least five tackles in seven outings . . . Was inactive for two games with the ankle injury . . . Had three tackles in the playoff win over the Raiders (12/28) and seven (all solos) in the postseason loss at Buffalo (1/5/92). 1990: Represented AFC in Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year . . . Led Chiefs in both interceptions with five and pass deflections with 14 . . . Was second among defensive backs with 64 tackles, the lowest non-strike total of his career . . . Played a role in 11 turnovers: five interceptions, three fumble recoveries and three forced fumbles . . . Scored fourth career touchdown on a four-yard return of a blocked punt by Albert Lewis vs. Cleveland (9/30) . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (3) when he had a hand in three turnovers in 17-3 victory at Green Bay (9/23); had an interception (off Don Majkowski), fumble recovery and forced fumble on the Kansas City one-yard line as the Packers were about to score . . . Had fourth two-interception game of career, picking off Dave Krieg twice at Seattle (10/21) . . . Intercepted Billy Joe Tolliver and recovered a fumble in win over Chargers

(11/18) . . . Had an interception off John Elway in triumph over Denver (12/9) . . . Had five solo tackles in Miami playoff game (1/5/91) . . . Missed a start vs. Seattle (11/11) with a groin injury, but played in the game. 1989: Was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl, joining fellow Chiefs corner Lewis . . . Tied for team theft lead with four, the most he's had since '86 when he also recorded four . . . All-AFC first team selection by Football News and a second-team All-AFC pick by UPI . . . Tied with Derrick Thomas for fifth on the team with 75 total tackles but led the club with 57 solo stops . . . Also added one forced fumble and 13 pass deflections (second on team to Lewis) . . . Missed one game (Steelers, 10/29) and parts of three others with a sore ankle . . . Collected first interception of season in Week 2 win over Raiders (9/17) . . . Picked off Boomer Esiason for second interception of season and added five solo stops vs. Cincinnati (10/1) . . . Made third interception of season at Raiders (10/15) and contributed six tackles; he has seven career interceptions off Raiders quarterbacks . . . Missed entire second half of Dallas game (10/22) with a sprained ankle; had two solo stops and forced fumble before departure . . . Was on inactive list vs. Steelers (10/29) with sprained ankle . . . Made seven tackles and had fourth interception of season against San Diego (12/17). 1988: Turned in another solid season, recording 99 tackles, one interception, three pass deflections and one forced fumble . . . His 99 tackles ranked third on the team and were second-most of career (had 111 in '85) . . . His one interception marked a career low . . . Missed one game (vs. Bengals, 11/13) and one start (vs. Seahawks, 11/20) with a right shoulder separation . . . Had two double-digit tackle outings and at least eight stops on seven occasions . . . Made 10 tackles (six solos) at Seattle (9/11) and recorded a season-high 13 stops (10 solos) at N.Y. Jets (10/2) . . . Made lone interception, along with eight tackles, at Pittsburgh (11/27). 1987: His three thefts gave him a share of the Chiefs interception crown (Cherry also had three) . . . Recorded 58 tackles, tying Lloyd Burruss for first among defensive backs and fourth on team . . . Finished third on club with seven deflected passes while forcing one fumble and making one sack . . . Had his third career two-interception game in win over Raiders (12/13) while also adding 10 tackles . . . Second interception of game came with 1:00 remaining in fourth quarter and with Chiefs clinging to 16-10 lead . . . His only other theft came against Denver (10/18) in the final replacement game . . . Scored his third career touchdown on a 65-yard return of a blocked field goal by Bill Maas at Cincinnati (12/6) which gave Kansas City a 24-20 lead in an overtime loss . . . Missed first game of pro career at Detroit (11/26) with a hip injury . . . Also missed a start at Pittsburgh (11/8) with same ailment . . . Played in 12 games with 11 starts. 1986: Produced another all-around performance that included four interceptions, a team-leading three fumble recoveries and 93 tackles . . . His special teams contributions included deflecting a punt, tackling a punter before the kick, returning a fumbled kickoff 21 yards for a touchdown in a 42-41 win over San Diego (10-19) and 16 special teams tackles . . . Tied a career best by making two interceptions at Raiders (12/14) in a key 20-17 win, including a game-clincher in the final two minutes . . . His 93 tackles led NFL cornerbacks, ranking fourth on the team, and his 76 solo stops were second on the squad . . . Started all 16 games and the playoff contest. 1985: All three of his '85 interceptions came in the first three games, including the first double-theft effort of his pro career in a season-opening romp at New Orleans (9/8) . . . Finished second to Cherry in tackles with a career-most 111, including 81 unassisted stops . . . Had at least three tackles in every game and recorded three games of 10-or-more tackles. 1984: Put together one of the most incredible rookie success stories in franchise history . . . Showed his competitive nature from the start of training camp and earned the starting right CB job by the regular season opener . . . Went on to make six interceptions, still a career high, and 98 tackles . . . Had a rocky beginning, having several long plays made against him by Pittsburgh wide receivers in the opener (9/2) . . . Proved his determination a week later by turning in a sterling performance at Cincinnati (9/9), making 10 tackles, forcing a fumble to set up a field goal and recovering a fumble deep in Kansas City territory in the final minute to preserve a 27-22 Chiefs win . . . From then on, he was a key performer in a vastly-improved defense and was voted winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award (top Chiefs rookie honor) . . . His six interceptions tied him for third in Kansas City history for thefts by a rookie (Bobby Hunt, eight in '62, Eric Harris, seven in '80 and David Webster, six in '60) . . . Ranked second to Cherry (seven) for team lead and tied for fifth in AFC and 11th in NFL . . . Returned his first interception 71 yards for a touchdown in the home opener against Raiders (9/16) . . . His 98 tackles (77 solos) were the most by a Chiefs rookie since Gary Spani (144) and Art Still (120) in '78 . . . Started all 16 games . . . Selected in the seventh round (173rd overall) of the '84 draft by the Chiefs.

College/Personal: At Temple, he recorded 13 career interceptions and 249 tackles in four years . . . Picked off three passes as a senior and a career-most five (in seven games) as a junior . . . Nose Tackle Ht: 6-0 Wt: 295

College: Arizona State
NFL Experience: 6 (4th with Chiefs)
Birthdate: November 25, 1964
Birthplace: San Diego, California
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Pro Career: Has developed into one of the NFL's finest interior linemen in just 2½ years as a starting nose tackle . . . Considered by many to be the best "Plan B" acquisition ever . . . Has been the Chiefs leading tackler on the defensive line the past two seasons, collecting a total of 164 tackles . . . Has an uncanny ability to come up with loose balls . . . In just three seasons as a Chief, he already ranks fifth on the club's all-time fumble recovery list with 13 . . . On the fumble recovery chart, he trails only Bobby Bell (15), Willie Lanier (15), Deron Cherry (15) and Jim Lynch (14), who all spent at least 11 seasons with the Chiefs . . . Also has one fumble recovery in playoff action . . . Leads all NFL defenders in fumble recoveries from '89-91; just behind him are New Orleans' Rickey Jackson (11), N.Y. Jets' James Hasty (nine) and Philadelphia's Jerome Brown (nine) . . . Joined Chiefs in '89 as a "Plan B" free agent from the Detroit Lions, where he spent two seasons as a backup to Jerry Ball . . . Took over Kansas City's starting nose tackle position the final six games of the

'89 season when Bill Maas was placed on injured reserve (arm) . . . Maas moved to defensive end and Saleaumua has opened all 32 games at nose tackle the past two seasons . . . Aggressive, hard-nosed player has deceptive quickness . . . Has ability to drop back to a linebacker spot from nose tackle; got lone interception, off John Elway, in that manner . . . Entered NFL in '87 as an untouted seventh-round (175th overall) pick of the Lions . . . Kansas City line reads 48 games (40 starts), 237 tackles, 13 fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles, 10½ sacks, one interception, one touchdown and one safety. 1991: Led all defensive linemen in tackles for the second straight year, grabbing 76, which placed on seventh on the entire club . . . Supplied an excellent pass rush all season with 26 quarterback pressures, 1½ sacks and one safety (on Cleveland QB Bernie Kosar, 11/24) . . . Ball hawk recovered two fumbles, giving him 13 the past three seasons, good for fifth on the Chiefs all-time list . . . Made another fumble recovery, along with six tackles, in 10-6 playoff win over the Raiders (12/28) . . . Made a season-high 11 tackles and collected a sack vs. Denver (11/17) . . . Had nine stops and a fumble recovery against the Seahawks (9/22). 1990: Proved his '89 season was not a fluke by earning first team All-NFL honors from Sports Illustrated (second straight year) and Pro Football Weekly . . . Started all 16 regular season games plus playoff contest at nose tackle . . . Took over starting position when Bill Maas moved to the starting right defensive end spot . . . Was second on team with a career-high 88 total tackles and led club with 59 solo stops . . . Only three interior linemen (Cleveland's Michael Dean Perry, Philadelphia's Jerome Brown and Minnesota's Henry Thomas) had more tackles in '90 . . . Only New Orleans' Ricky Jackson (seven) had more fumble recoveries . . . Made a career-best seven sacks, third-most on the Chiefs defense . . . His 41 quarterback pressures ranked second on the squad . . . Scored first NFL touchdown on a fumble recovery in end zone vs. Seattle (11/11); fumble came about on one of Derrick Thomas' NFL-record seven sacks . . . Collected 10 tackles (nine solos) with a career-best 2½ sacks in win at Green Bay (9/23) . . . Had five tackles (all solos) in Miami playoff contest (1/5/91). 1989: Was possibly the biggest surprise on the Chiefs second-rated defense . . . Named to Sports Illustrated's All-Pro team by Paul Zimmerman . . . His five fumble recoveries led team and tied for the NFL lead with Seattle's Nesby Glasgow, Pittsburgh's Carnell Lake, Minneosta's Chris Doleman and New Orleans' James Geathers . . . Made 73 tackles (56 solos) to lead all defensive linemen and finish sixth on the team . . . Added two sacks and one forced fumble . . . Recorded first NFL interception, picking off a John Elway pass and returning it 21 yards vs. Denver (11/12); dropped back into coverage from nose tackle position to make theft . . . Recorded 41 quarterback pressures . . . Played in all 16 contests and made eight starts . . . Opened two games at defensive tackle when the Chiefs utilized four-man fronts, then started the final six games at nose tackle after Bill Maas was placed on injured reserve with a broken arm . . . Had a career-high 12 tackles (10 solos), a forced and recovered fumble and two QB pressures at Cleveland (11/19) . . . Recovered two fumbles in win over Miami (12/3) . . . CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the third straight year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101 FM. The Chiefs Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a five-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs regular and preseason games live. The broadcast team of Kevin Harlan, Len Dawson and Bill Grigsby begin their eighth season together in the booth. Harlan, whose voice can also be heard on Minnesota Timberwolves games, handles the play-by-play for the eighth year in a row. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the Chiefs broadcast team since the club's first year in Kansas City, will also provide expert analysis. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre- and post-game comments for the third straight season.

WORLD LEAGUE CHIEFS

At the start of the Chiefs '92 training camp, the club had a total of 14 players who have played in the World League. Here are the players and the team(s) they played for:

Eddie Brown, Sacramento Surge '92
Willie Davis, Orlando Thunder '92
Aaron Emanuel, Montreal Machine '92
Ron Goetz, Barcelona Dragons '91-92
William Kirksey, London Monarchs '92
Pellom McDaniels, Birmingham Fire '91-92
Tracy Simien, Montreal Machine '91
Steve Starcevich, Old Glory & NY/NJ Knights '92
Tommie Stowers, Orlando Thunder '91-92
Kent Sullivan, San Antonio Riders '91-92
Gene Taylor, Barcelona Dragons '91
Joe Valerio, Birmingham Fire '92
Brent White, Barcelona Dragons '91-92
Todd Young, Frankfort Galaxy '91

ZONING OUT

The Chiefs made great strides in their "red zone" offense and defense last year. The "red zone," the area between the end zone and the 20-yard line, is the most crucial area on the field. Here's a look:

CHIEFS HISTORY

1959 — Lamar Hunt establishes and organizes the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, is hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — The Dallas Texans average 24,500 in the Cotton Bowl during the AFL's inaugural season. The Texans Abner Haynes leads the AFL in rushing.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both draft highly-tauted center E.J. Holub, who chose to play in the fledgling new league. Hunt also signs three other rookies who would later join Holub in the Chiefs Hall of Fame — Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brings in Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Dawson is voted the AFL's player of the year as the Texans win the league championship when Tommy Brooker connects on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving Dallas a 20-17 victory over Houston.

1963 — On May 14, Lamar Hunt announces he is moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. The Chiefs win their debut in Kansas City with a 28-7 victory over Houston in Municipal Stadium. Three rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell become starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1966 — The Chiefs sign Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC en route to the AFC West title. Len Dawson leads the league in passing for the second time in three years.

1967 — The Chiefs defeat the Buffalo Bills, 31-7, on New Year's Day to win the franchise's second AFL Championship and earn a trip to Super Bowl I. The Chiefs play NFL powerhouse Green Bay Packers in the first NFL-AFL Championship Game on January 15 in the Los Angeles Coliseum, which was won by the Packers 35-10. The Chiefs add Willie Lanier, Jim Lynch, Jan Stenerud and Noland (Super Gnat) Smith to an already star-studded team.

1970 — On January 4, the Chiefs defeat the Oakland Raiders 17-7, to capture the AFL championship. It is the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs become the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history comes to a peak as the Chiefs become World Champions by defeating the Minnesota Vikings, who were two-touchdown favorites, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. Len Dawson was named the game's MVP.

1971 — The Chiefs begin their first season of NFL play and win the AFC West title with a 16-14 win over Oakland at Municipal Stadium. Kansas City and Miami hook up in the longest game in NFL history. The Chiefs lose the AFC playoff game in double overtime, 27-24, in the last game played at Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt becomes the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. The Chiefs open play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most impressive facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watches the home team defeat the Raiders on November 5.

1975 — Len Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announces his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise.

1983 — Linebacker Bobby Bell becomes the Chiefs first player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30 in Canton.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton on August 2. The Chiefs post a 24-19 victory at Pittsburgh to clinch an AFC Wild Card berth, the team's first playoff bid in 15 years. The Chiefs lose the playoff game to the New York Jets, 35-15, on December 28 in Giants Stadium.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, near his hometown of Alliance, Ohio.

1989 — President/General Manager Carl Peterson and Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer take over the Chiefs reigns.

1990 — Chiefs advance to the playoffs for first time in Peterson/Schottenheimer era, dropping a 17-16 decision to the Miami Dolphins, on January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4.

1991 — Chiefs play first ever playoff game at Arrowhead Stadium. The club posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders. In a divisional playoff game at Buffalo, the Chiefs suffered a 37-14 setback. Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (on July 27).

BUTKUS FINDS A HOME IN K.C.

Although college football's Butkus Award has only been in existence since 1985 and produced seven winners, Kansas City is home to three of the honorees. The award, which is presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando, Florida, to the nation's best collegiate linebacker, is named after Dick Butkus, two-time consensus All-America linebacker at Illinois and six-time all-pro with the Chicago Bears.

The Chiefs selected Derrick Thomas, the '88 winner in the first round of the '89 draft, Percy Snow, the '89 recipient, in the first round of the '90 draft, and Erick Anderson, the '91 honoree, in the seventh round of the '92 draft.

Here's a look at the seven Butkus Award winners:

1985	Brian Bosworth, Oklahoma
1986	Brian Bosworth, Oklahoma
1987	Paul McGowan, Florida State
1988	Derrick Thomas, Alabama
1989	Percy Snow, Michigan State
1990	Alfred Williams, Colorado
1991	Erick Anderson, Michigan

TURNOVERS TO POINTS

The Chiefs are +37 in giveaway/takeaway column the past two years to lead the NFL. The Chiefs 88 takeaways in '90-91 have resulted in 214 points while the club's 41 giveaways have generated just 88 points. That's a difference of 126 markers the past two seasons.

Three-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas has created the most havoc, having a hand in 16 turnovers. Below is a look at the Chiefs top thieves during the '90 and '91 seasons:

	INT	FR	FF	Tot.	TD
Derrick Thomas	0	6	10	16	1
Kevin Ross	6	4	3	13	0

ARROWHEAD STADIUM

Arrowhead Stadium, home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S. Truman Sports Complex, which also includes a 42,000-seat baseball stadium. Arrowhead was dedicated August 12, 1972 at the inaugural preseason game. Since, 9,869,345 spectators have passed through the stadium turnstiles to enjoy Chiefs football.

Level Breakdown: (77,622)
Upper Level — 33,930; Club Level — 10,199; Lower Level — 33,443; Between End Zones — 50,000.

Construction Data:
Overall Supervision: Jackson County Sports Authority
Architect: Kivett and Myers with Charles Deaton, Design Associate
General Contractor: Sharp, Kidde, Webb
Groundbreaking: July, 1968
Completion: August, 1972

Funding:
Funds for Complex development and construction were provided by General Obligation Bond issue approved by voters of Jackson County on June 27, 1967, by a 67.8% majority. Additions to Arrowhead (explained below) are financed by $4.5 million Revenue Bonds to be retired by additional rental payment from Kansas City Chiefs, plus $5 million privately financed by the Chiefs.

Costs: Dual Stadium Complex $53,000,000
Additions to Arrowhead paid by Chiefs ..... $ 9,500,000
(Paid for by the Chiefs, added improvements include 18,000 chair-back seats, computerized scoreboard, all food-beverage service facilities, club facilities, business suites and administrative areas.)

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
Texans 20, Oilers 17
(Double Overtime)
Jeppesen Stadium, Houston (37,981)
December 23, 1962

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and '61 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertantly elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards; Spikes, the game's most valuable player, then ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

War Memorial Stadium, Buffalo (42,080)

January 1, 1967

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff. Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I
Packers 35, Chiefs 10
Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)
January 15, 1967

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. But the Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, McGee making a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7, before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned all the way to the Chiefs 5-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,544)

January 4, 1970

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own 2-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plaque both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas' steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV
Chiefs 23, Vikings 7
Tulane Stadium, New Orleans (80,562)
January 11, 1970

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains a Super Bowl record. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for the touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, highstepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

CHIEFS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

LAMAR HUNT, AFL & Chiefs Founder, 1960-present.
Inducted in 1972.

Founded the American Football League in 1960 with his Dallas Texans franchise . . . Became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1972 . . . Described during his induction ceremonies as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" . . . Serves as the president of the American Football Conference . . . Since 1984, the AFC championship game trophy has carried his name . . . Has seen the Chiefs win three AFL titles and a Super Bowl trophy . . . Was born August 2, 1932, in El Dorado, Arkansas . . . Graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1956 with a B.S. in geology . . . Was a reserve end on SMU's football team . . . He and his wife, Norma, reside in Dallas and have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharon, Clark and Daniel.

BOBBY BELL, Linebacker, 6-4, 225, 1963-74.
Inducted in 1983.

Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Hall when he was chosen in the Class of 1983 . . . Some have called him the greatest outside linebacker to play the game . . . Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end, because Chiefs needed help at that position when he was drafted in the seventh round in 1963 . . . Earned All-AFL or All-AFC honors for eight consecutive years . . . During that span he starred on two AFL Championship teams, played in Super Bowls I and IV, and was named to the AFL all-decade team in 1969 . . . Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles (tying Willie Lanier and Deron Cherry for Kansas City record) . . . Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, North Carolina . . . Was an all-state quarterback at Cleveland High School in Shelby . . . Was the Outland Trophy winner as college football's outstanding lineman as a senior in 1962 at Minnesota . . . Played on College All-Star team that defeated the Packers in 1963 . . . Currently owns Bobby Bell's Bar-B-Que in Kansas City.

WILLIE LANIER, Middle Linebacker, 6-1, 245, 1967-77.
Inducted in 1986.

As part of the Hall's Class of 1986, he became the second Chiefs player to be enshrined in Canton . . . Chiefs starting middle linebacker for 11 years, he possessed a ferocious tackling style that made him a feared run-stopper . . . Also had the speed and agility that helped him grab 27 career interceptions, good for the sixth-most ever by a Chief . . . His 15 fumble recoveries tie Bobby Bell and Deron Cherry for the most ever by a Chiefs defender . . . A second-round draft choice in 1967, he missed just five games in his 11 NFL campaigns . . . Played in two AFL All-Star games and five AFC-NFC Pro Bowls . . . Helped Chiefs to their only World Championship, a Super Bowl IV victory over Minnesota . . . Born August 21,1945 in Clover, Virginia . . . Attended Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond, Virginia . . . Was a two-time small college All-America pick at Morgan State . . . Named Tangerine Bowl MVP . . . Graduated from Morgan State in 1967 with a B.S. in business administration . . . Lives in Richmond, where he is vice president at First Wheat Securities.

LEN DAWSON, Quarterback, 6-0, 190, 1962-75.
Inducted in 1987.

Heart and sole of Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career . . . During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history . . . Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won AFL Championships in 1962, 1966 and 1969 . . . Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a win over heavily-favored Minnesota . . . Won AFL passing titles four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass rating, attempts, completions, completion percentage, passing yards and touchdowns . . . Started pro career with the Steelers, as a first-round pick in '56, then landed with the Browns before ending up with the Texans . . . Born June 20, 1935 in Alliance, Ohio . . . Attended Alliance High School . . . Led Big 10 in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue . . . Does play-by-play on Chiefs Radio and is the sports anchor at KMBC-TV in Kansas City.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Defensive Tackle, 6-7, 275, 1963-75.
Inducted in 1990.

Becomes third member of feared Kansas City defense to enter the Hall . . . The first overall selection in the 1963 AFL draft, he became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen . . . Combined perfect size with outstanding strength and deceptive speed . . . Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl in 1970 . . . Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl . . . Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from 1966-69 . . . His teammates named him the Chiefs MVP in 1965 and 1967 . . . Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Alabama . . . Was captain of both football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham . . . Played tackle on both sides of the ball at Grambling for Eddie Robinson, who called him "the finest tackle I have ever seen" . . . Today, he owns All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City.

JAN STENERUD, Placekicker, 6-2, 190, 1967-79.
Inducted in 1991.

The first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Hall and the fifth Chiefs player to make it to Canton . . . Regarded by many as the best placekicker in pro football history . . . Played 19 NFL seasons: Kansas City 1967-79; Green Bay 1980-83; and Minnesota 1984-85 . . . Owns NFL record for most career field goals made with 373 and is second to George Blanda on the league's all-time scoring list with 1,699 points . . . Still owns or shares 9 Chiefs records, including career records for field goals attempted (436) and consecutive games played (186) . . . Hit a 48-yard field goal in Super Bowl IV victory . . . Was selected by Chiefs in third round of '66 AFL "red shirt" draft . . . Attended Montana State on a skiing scholarship . . . A native of Fetsund, Norway . . . Is now director of business development for Howard Needles Tammen & Bergendoff, a Kansas City architectural firm.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

TRACY SIMIEN

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs veteran players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player, who, as the inscription on the trophy reads — "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill . . . the man with the giant heart and quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The 1991 winner of the award was linebacker Tracy Simien, who came back from the World Football League to take over the Chiefs left inside linebacker position, starting 12 games. Simien contributed 79 tackles, tied for fifth on the squad, and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after turning in six tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery against Seattle. The hard-hitting first-year player also forced two fumbles and excelled on special teams.

Running back Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Raiders during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

HEISMAN CHIEFS

Three Heisman Trophy winners – Billy Cannon, Mike Garrett and John Huarte – have spent part of their pro playing career with the Kansas City Chiefs, and in 1970 the entire trio graced the club's roster.

Cannon, who inspired the movie "Everybody's All-American," took home the Heisman in '59 after a stellar college career at LSU. He played one season ('70) with the Chiefs, catching seven passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns.

Garrett won the coveted Heisman in '65 and was drafted out of Southern Cal by the Chiefs in '66. He wore the Kansas City red and gold from '66-70, and is the team's third all-time rusher with 3,246 yards. He was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in '77.

Huarte was the surprise Heisman winner in '64 after nearly directing Notre Dame to the national title. The Chiefs were one of eight pro teams he played for. In his three seasons ('69-71) with the club, he threw just eight passes as a backup to Len Dawson and Mike Livingston.

THE CHIEFS AMBASSADORS

Players Helping Players and the Community

In 1989 several former players met with the management of the Kansas City Chiefs with the idea of volunteering to work with the team to promote goodwill in the community and to assist in any way they could to help achieve the goal of consistent quality football for the fans of Kansas City. The idea was heartily endorsed by the management and by coach Marty Schottenheimer who actively involved former players while in Cleveland. Since then the Ambassadors have developed into an organization which has been highly successful in achieving its objectives.

The primary purpose of the Ambassadors is four-fold:

1. To support the Kansas City Chiefs football team and organization. This support includes VIP entertainment, public appearances on behalf of the team, assisting the staff in sales and public relations, and visiting suiteholders, tailgate parties, and fan gatherings on Gameday.

2. To serve as a goodwill extension of the Chiefs by being involved with the community, charities, and the fans. Current events include a charity golf tournament, numerous community speaking engagements, development of a fund to assist former players suffering financial hardship, and assisting current players in their charitable endeavors.

3. To provide an opportunity for former Chiefs players to remain actively involved with the Chiefs.

4. To assist the current players by helping them become assimilated into the Kansas City area, locate off season employment or employment once their football career is over, and by acting as a liason between them and alumni. They also support and encourage the players at home and on the road as only another player can.

The Ambassadors have grown into a close knit group which is recognized throughout the NFL as an innovative and worthy cause for former players. Numerous teams have plans to develop a similar program. The program in Kansas City continues to grow and exciting improvements are underway.

AMBASSADOR OFFICERS

President – Walter White
Vice President – Ed Lothamer
Vice President – Ted McKnight
Treasurer – Larry Marshall

Ambassador Members: Bobby Bell, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde, Ken Kremer, Charlie Getty, Dave Lindstrom, Henry Marshall and Bobby Ply.

FAN-TASTIC

- In '92, the Chiefs cut off season-ticket sales at 65,000, giving the club its largest base of season-ticket holders since '74.
- The Chiefs sold out seven of their regular season home games last year, and, with a sell-out in the playoffs, the club has filled the house eight straight times.
- Last season, Kansas City averaged 74,762 fans for eight regular season home games, breaking the old club record of 72,756, set in '72, the first year the Chiefs played at Arrowhead Stadium (capacity: 77,872).
- The team's average attendance of 74,762 ranked second in the NFL last year behind the Buffalo Bills (79,468). The Chiefs finished just ahead of the New York Giants (74,650) and Denver Broncos (73,027).

What's up down on the farm?

Innovation.

In fact, these days American Agriculture's most important products are new ideas.

Like environmentally-sound ways to nourish and protect crops and livestock.

And technologies to deliver the more healthful, wholesome food you demand.

In case you haven't heard, a big share of this innovation has come from Farmland, with more in the works all the time.

Which helps explain why our name keeps cropping up lately.

How do we explain our new calling card? Easy.

Meet Sprint's new FŌNCARD.℠ A calling card designed to make life easy.

How easy? To begin with you have fewer numbers to dial. Just dial 10333 to get into the system.

And because your card number is your phone number and four digits, it's very easy to remember.

You can also make 3-way conference calls. Without an operator. Send messages. Get the latest stock market quotes, weather reports, sports scores. And to make it real easy, you can do all the above with a single phone call.

So call us. And get your free FŌNCARD. And who says nothing's easy? 1-800-PIN-DROP.
